Marriage, Divorce, and Annulment

Marriage

Marriage is a sacred and important relationship. Dissolution of a marriage can result in extreme difficulties for each member of a family.¹

Marriage is discussed in sections 30-1-1 to 30-1-39 of the Utah Code. Marriages are generally prohibited and void between close relatives (i.e., marriages between parents and children, ancestors and descendants, siblings, uncles and nieces or nephews, aunts and nieces or nephews, first cousins, and individuals related within but not including the fifth degree of consanguinity).² Marriage is also prohibited and void if one spouse is married to someone else. Applicants who are 16 or 17 may marry only with parental or guardian and judicial consent.

Foreign marriages are valid even if they would be prohibited and void under Utah law, so long as they do not result in a marriage between people related within and including the third degree of consanguinity.³

The parties must receive a marriage license prior to their marriage.⁴ The marriage license may only be used within the state of Utah and must be used within 30 days of the date it was issued.⁵

Marriages may be solemnized by a county clerk (or their designee), the governor, mayors, judges, etc., and by any individual 18 or older who has been authorized by a religious denomination (at their discretion).⁶ Within 30 days after a marriage is solemnized, the individual who solemnized it is to return the license and marriage certificate to the county clerk, who is to file and record it. The penalty for failure to return the license and certificate as specified is an infraction.⁷

Even if a marriage is not solemnized, it is valid if the court or administrative order finds that it results from “a contract between a man and a woman who: (a) are of legal age and capable of giving consent; (b) are legally capable of entering a solemnized marriage”; “(c) have cohabited; (d) mutually assume marital rights, duties, and obligations; and (e) who hold themselves out as and have acquired a uniform and general reputation as husband and wife.”

Annulment

If a marriage fails, it can be dissolved by annulment or divorce. A marriage may be annulled if it is prohibited or void or if common law grounds exist (e.g., fraud in the inducement of marriage). A party that sues for annulment can request a divorce as alternative relief.

Divorce

The grounds for divorce are impotency, adultery, willful desertion for more than a year, willful failure to provide support, habitual drunkenness, felony conviction, cruel treatment, irreconcilable differences, incurable insanity, or separation of three years under a decree of separate maintenance. Either the husband or the wife must be a county resident for 3 months before filing the divorce action.

At the beginning of a divorce case the petitioner needs to file a cover sheet, certificate of divorce, and complaint. An affidavit of impecuniosity may be filed if the petitioner is low income. Otherwise the cost of the divorce is $310.

The complaint must be served on the respondent within 120 days after the filing of the complaint or the case is to be dismissed without prejudice. A party may also accept service without being served and an attorney may accept service on behalf of a client. If the action is started by serving the summons and complaint, these documents and the proof of service must be filed within ten days of service or the action is to be “deemed dismissed” and the court has “no further jurisdiction.”

8 Utah Code Ann. § 30-1-4.5 (LexisNexis 2013). In the case of Hansen v. Hansen, 958 P.2d 931 (Utah Ct. App. 1998), the court found that the elements necessary to establish a common law marriage must be proven by preponderance of the evidence. In that case no common law marriage was established, although the parties had been previously married, divorced, and then began cohabiting, again. The court found that the wife had not consented to the marriage and that the couple had not consistently held themselves out as husband and wife and had not acquired a uniform and general reputation as husband and wife. In Kelley v. Kelley, 9 P.3d 171 (Utah Ct. App. 2000) a common law marriage was found to exist, based upon these factors.

Service may be by personal service, by someone 18 or older but not a party or a party’s attorney. Service may also be done through other service (e.g., by publication) if the identity or whereabouts of the person to be served are unknown or cannot be ascertained through reasonable diligence. Proof of service must be filed with the court in accordance with Rule 4(e) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure (e.g., a document that says the date, place, and manner of service).

The respondent, who is served in Utah, has 21 days to answer the complaint. Claims that the respondent has against the petitioner are to be included as counterclaims. The respondent can also seek dismissal of the complaint (e.g., for lack of jurisdiction) or try to quash service.

Unless extraordinary circumstances exist, parties to a divorce action must wait at least 30 days after filing a complaint before a hearing may be held. If there are children of the marriage, a divorce may not be granted until both parties have attended a divorce education class, unless this requirement is waived by the court. The court may also order the divorce education for unmarried parents who are involved in a custody or visitation case.

A divorce case can be resolved by default, stipulation, or trial. If the case is resolved by default, the petitioner may need to file a default certificate, to be signed by the court clerk. In default or stipulated cases the parties will need to file documents called: “Motion for Default” and “Affidavit of Grounds and Jurisdiction.” If the case is resolved by stipulation a copy of the stipulation needs to be filed with the court. In all divorce cases (whether resolved by default, stipulation, or trial), the following two documents must be filed: “Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law” and “Decree of Divorce.”

Jurisdiction In General

Utah courts have divorce jurisdiction over people who have resided in Utah in a marital relationship, even if they have moved away.27 Rule 3(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure says that the court has jurisdiction “from the time of the filing of the complaint or service of the summons and a copy of the complaint.”

District Court Jurisdiction Versus Juvenile Court Jurisdiction

Utah district courts generally have jurisdiction over civil matters.28 The juvenile court has exclusive jurisdiction in proceedings involving minors who have been abused or neglected.29 The juvenile court may acquire jurisdiction over a case involving a child who has been abused or neglected and may change prior district court orders related to custody, support, and parent-time.30

The Utah Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act and the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act of 1980

The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (Uniform Act) and the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act of 1980 (PKPA) determine whether or not Utah is the appropriate jurisdiction for custody determinations, largely considering where the children reside and where they have resided for the past six months.

Utah has adopted the Uniform Act, which is found in sections 78B-12-101 to 78B-12-302 of the Utah Code. It says that Utah courts have child custody jurisdiction if one of the following situations exists: (1) Utah was the child's home state31 at the beginning of the case (or was the child's home state within six months of the beginning of the case, even though the child has moved away, so long as a parent still lives in the state); (2) a court of another state does not have jurisdiction or has declined to exercise jurisdiction and the child and a parent have a significant connection with Utah (where substantial evidence exists); (3) all courts having jurisdiction have declined to exercise it because Utah is the more appropriate forum; or (4) no state would have jurisdiction.32

31 "Home State" is defined as “the state in which a child lived with a parent or person acting as a parent for at least six consecutive months immediately before the commencement of a child custody proceeding.” Utah Code Ann. § 78B-13-102(7) (LexisNexis 2012).
Utah continues to have “exclusive, continuing jurisdiction” until either: (1) a Utah court determines that the child (or the child and a parent (or person acting as a parent)) no longer have a significant connection to Utah and substantial evidence is no longer available, here, or (2) a court finds that the child and parents (or persons acting as a parents) have moved away from Utah. A Utah court that has exclusive continuing jurisdiction may decline to exercise jurisdiction if it is an “inconvenient forum.” A Utah court that has made a ruling about child custody, but “does not have exclusive, continuing jurisdiction” is permitted to modify the ruling “only if it has jurisdiction to make an initial custody determination.” Likewise, a Utah court may not modify a child custody determination of another state unless: (1) the Utah court “has jurisdiction to make an initial determination” and the other court either “determines that it no longer has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction” or determines that Utah “would be a more convenient forum,” or (2) either court determines that neither the child or a parent (or person acting as a parent) presently resides in the other state.

A Utah court has temporary emergency jurisdiction if a child is in the state and has been abandoned or needs protection from mistreatment or abuse. Courts may consult with each other if there is a dispute about which is the most appropriate forum.

Under the Uniform Act, each party must include (“if reasonably ascertainable”), under oath, as part of his or her first pleading or in a separate affidavit: (a) the child’s present address, (b) each residence of the child for the previous five years, (c) names and current addresses of persons with whom the child lived during that time, (d) whether the party has participated in other proceedings concerning custody or parent-time of the child and, if so, the court, case number, and date of the child custody determination, (e) whether the party knows of any proceeding that could affect the current proceeding (such as domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions) and, if so, the court, case number, and nature of the proceeding, and (e) whether the party knows the names and addresses of any other people the who have or claim physical custody of the child and, if so, the names and addresses of those people.

Under the PKPA federal courts are given jurisdiction to combat interference with child custody. The PKPA is similar to the Uniform Act in determining which state should have jurisdiction over a child custody action. A court in a state, other than the one which originally entered the divorce decree, is allowed to modify a decree if it has jurisdiction and the original court no longer has jurisdiction or has declined to exercise jurisdiction.\textsuperscript{42}

The PKPA,\textsuperscript{43} the Uniform Act,\textsuperscript{44} and the United States Constitution\textsuperscript{45} require that full faith and credit be given to any custody decree of a court which had jurisdiction. Utah district courts can register other states’ child custody determinations.\textsuperscript{46} In addition, child custody interference may be combated through the use of criminal laws, contempt proceedings, tort actions, and preventive measures.

The Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction

The Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (in effect between the U.S. and about 30 other countries) helps with the return of abducted children and the exercise of parent-time rights across international boundaries. The Uniform Act allows enforcement of the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.\textsuperscript{47}

Chapter 3
Child Custody

Child custody issues arise in divorce, legal separation, protective orders, child abuse cases, and paternity cases. Two types of child custody must be considered: legal custody and physical custody. Legal custody has to do with a parent’s rights, privileges, duties, and powers, regarding a child, including authority to make decisions. Physical custody has to do with where the child will live.

The trial court has broad discretion to determine custody.50

Custody in General

In cases where the parties are separated or where a marriage is declared void or dissolved the court shall enter an order of custody and parent-time, and the court shall have continuing jurisdiction to modify the order.51 In making custody determinations, the court is to consider the best interests of the child, and may consider the following factors: (1) evidence of domestic violence, neglect or abuse; (2) ability to meet the developmental needs of the child; (3) capacity and willingness to function as a parent; (4) past conduct and moral character; (5) emotional stability; (6) drug abuse, excessive drinking or other causes affecting the ability to function as a parent; (7) intentionally exposing the child to harmful material, including pornography; (8) reasons for having relinquished custody or parent-time in the past; (9) desire for custody or parent-time; (10) religious compatibility; (11) financial responsibility; (12) relationships with step-parents, extended family, etc.; (13) who has been the primary caretaker; (14) previous arrangements in which the child has been happy and well-adjusted; (15) keeping siblings together; (16) wishes and concerns of a mature child; (17) strength of bond with parents; and (18) any other factor the court finds relevant.52

There can be joint, split, or sole custody. Joint custody may be either joint legal custody, joint physical custody, or both. Joint legal custody means sharing the rights, privileges, duties and powers of a parent. Joint physical custody means that both parents have periods of time during which the children reside with them and that both parents contribute to the support and expenses of the child. There is a rebuttable presumption that joint legal custody is in the best interests of the child except when there is evidence of domestic violence, neglect or abuse; special physical or mental needs; physical distance between the residences of the parents; or other factors the court deems relevant.53

53 See Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-10.1(3) (LexisNexis Supp. 2018) (staying with each parent overnight at least 30% of the time); Utah Code Ann. § 78B-12-102(15) (LexisNexis Supp. 2018) (staying with each parent overnight at least 30% of the time “and both parents contribute to the expenses of the child in addition to paying child support”).
Split custody “means that each parent has physical custody of at least one of the children.”54 Sole physical custody is where one parent has all the children residing with them and the other parent has some type of parent-time rights.

A presumption favors natural parents and adoptive parents over nonparents.55 That presumption may be rebutted by evidence that: (1) no strong mutual bond exists, (2) the parent has not demonstrated a willingness to sacrifice their own “interest and welfare” for the child, and (3) the parent lacks sympathy and understanding of the child.56 Once that presumption is rebutted the custody decision is made based on “the best interests of the child.”57

Joint Custody and Parenting Plans

The court may not order joint legal and/or joint physical custody unless one or both of the parents files a parenting plan and the court determines it is in the best interests of the child.58 A parenting plan is a “plan for parenting a child, including allocation of parenting functions” such as maintaining a loving relationship, attending to daily needs, education, assisting with interpersonal relationships, exercising appropriate judgment, and financial support.59 Any party seeking a “shared parenting arrangement,” such as joint custody, is to “file and serve a proposed parenting plan” when they file their petition, answer, or counterclaim.60 A party that files a proposed parenting plan, as required, may “move the court for an order of default to adopt the plan if the other party fails to file a proposed parenting plan.”61 The parenting plan must include provisions concerning future dispute resolution, “allocation of decision-making authority,” residential arrangements, and “provisions addressing notice and parent-time responsibilities in the event of the relocation of either party.”62 “[E]ither parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child.”63 Each parent is allowed to “make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child” during times that “the child is residing with that parent.”64 Other provisions may be included “regarding the welfare of the child.”65

In deciding whether or not to make an order of joint legal custody and/or joint physical custody, the court is to determine whether the best interest of the child will be served by such an order, considering the following factors: (1) whether or not the “physical, psychological, and emotional needs and development of the child will benefit from joint legal or physical custody;”

(2) “the ability of the parents to give first priority to the welfare of the child and reach shared decisions”; (3) co-parenting skills, including ability to “appropriately communicate with the other parent,” “encourage the sharing of love and affection,” and willingness to “allow frequent and continuous contact between the child and the other parent”; (4) “whether both parents participated in raising the child before the divorce”; (5) the geographical proximity of the parents’ homes; (6) the preference of a mature child; (7) the maturity of the parents; (8) “the past and present ability of the parents to cooperate with each other and make decisions jointly;”; and
(9) any other relevant factors.66 An order for joint legal custody or joint physical custody is to provide the terms the court believes are appropriate.67 Any parental rights not specified in the order “may be exercised by the parent having physical custody” most of the time.68 The order may be modified or terminated, following a hearing, based on the petition of either party.69

Custody Evaluations

A custody evaluation may be used to determine which parent should have custody. Custody evaluations must be done by a state licensed clinical social worker, psychologist, state licensed physician who is board certified in psychiatry, licensed marriage and family therapist, or clinical mental health counselor.70 Unless otherwise specified, custody evaluators must consider the factors set forth in Utah Code sections 30-3-10 and 30-3-10.2.71 The court orders performance of a custody evaluation, based on stipulation or motion.72

Although one factor in deciding custody is who can give personal rather than surrogate care, it would be an abuse of discretion to change custody because the mom now has to work full time and the dad has a new wife who can stay at home with the children.73

Another factor to consider is the identity of the children’s primary caretaker.74 If the court looks at who has been the primary caretaker, in determining who should get custody, they would look at such things as: preparation and planning of meals; bathing, grooming, and dressing; purchase, cleaning, and care of clothes; medical care; arranging social interactions;

Parent-time in General

“Parent-time” (or “visitation”) is the term used to describe a noncustodial parent’s right to spend time with his or her child. Parent-time rights are outlined in sections 30-3-32 to -37 of the Utah Code Annotated.

Section 30-3-32 covers the intents and definitions of parent-time. The legislature intends “to promote parent-time at a level consistent with all parties’ interests.” In determining parent-time, the court will consider the “safety and well-being of the child and the parent who experiences domestic or family violence.” Absent a showing by a preponderance of evidence of real harm or substantiated potential harm to the child it is the entitlement and responsibility of parents and in the best interests of the child to have “frequent, meaningful, and continuing access” to each other following separation or divorce and it is also in the best interests of the child for both parents to be “actively involved in parenting the child.”

Section 30-3-33 suggests the following "advisory guidelines" concerning parent-time. Agreements are preferred. Parent-time schedules are to be used to maximize “continuity and stability” in a child’s life. Family functions are to be given special consideration. Responsibility for pick up, delivery, and return of the child is to be determined by the court at the time the parent-time order is entered. If the noncustodial parent is providing transportation, the custodial parent must have the child ready for parent-time and make arrangements to receive the child following parent-time. If the custodial parent is providing transportation, the noncustodial parent is to be at the appointed place and at the appointed time to receive the child and “have the child ready to be picked up at the appointed time and place” or make “reasonable alternative arrangements for the custodial parent to pick up the child.” Regular school hours are not to be interrupted for parent-time. The court may accommodate the parents’ work schedules and may exceed but not diminish standard parent-time. The court may alter the parent-time schedule to “reasonably accommodate the distance between the parties and the expense of exercising parent-time.”

parent-time orders. The noncustodial parent is to be informed of significant functions in which the child is participating, within twenty-four hours of the time the custodial parent receives notice. The noncustodial parent is to have direct access to school and medical records and is to be notified immediately of medical emergencies. Each parent is to provide the other parent with their current address, phone number, email address, etc., within twenty-four hours of a change. Each parent is to “permit and encourage” reasonable uncensored communication with the child during reasonable hours, by mail or by “virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available.” Parental care is considered to be better than surrogate care. Each parent is to provide surrogate care providers with the other parent’s name, address, and phone number. Unless excused by the court, each parent is to provide the other parent with the name, address, and phone number of surrogate care providers. Each parent is entitled to an equal division of major religious holidays that are celebrated by the parents. If a child is on a “different parent-time schedule than a sibling” the parents should consider making parent-time “uniform between school aged and nonschool children.” In the event of deployment, parents who are service members should resolve custody issues as soon as possible.

Section 30-3-34 addresses the best interests of the children and justifications for allowing less than a normal amount of parent-time. If parties are unable to agree about parent-time the court may establish a schedule that it considers to be in the best interests of the children. The advisory guidelines and parent-time schedule are presumed to be in the best interests of the children, “unless the court determines that Section 30-3-35.1 should apply”. More or less parent-time is considered appropriate only if there is: physical or significant emotional danger; evidence of domestic violence, neglect, or physical, sexual or emotional abuse involving the child, parent, or other household member of the parent; some distance between the parties’ residences; credible allegations of abuse; “lack of demonstrated parenting skills”; financial inability to “provide adequate food and shelter”; preference of mature children; “incarceration of the noncustodial parent”; shared interests of the child and the noncustodial parent; “involvement or lack of involvement of the noncustodial parent in the school, community, religious, or other related activities of the child”; “availability of the noncustodial parent to care for child when the custodial parent is unavailable”; “a substantial and chronic pattern” of canceled or denied parent-time; lack of bonding between the parents; parent-time schedules of siblings; “lack of reasonable alternatives to the needs of a nursing child”; etc. 106 Supervised parent-time can also be ordered. 107

The schedule is only to be changed by mutual consent or court order. 108

Standard Parent-time Schedule for Children Under the Age of Five

Sections 30-3-35 and 30-3-35.5 are the standard parent-time schedules and are considered to be the minimum schedule if the parties cannot agree to something. 109 Section 30-3-35.5 is the minimum schedule for parent-time for children under five years of age. 110 The text of section 30-3-35.5 is as follows.

(1) The parent-time schedule in this section applies to children under five years old.
(2) All holidays in this section refer to the same holidays referenced in Section 30-3-35.
(3) If the parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule, the following schedule shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which the noncustodial parent and the child shall be entitled.
   (a) For children under five months of age:
      (i) six hours of parent-time per week to be specified by the court or the noncustodial preferably:
         (A) divided into three parent-time periods; and
         (B) in the custodial home, established child care setting, or other environment familiar to the child; and
      (ii) two hours on holidays and in the years specified in Subsections 30-3-35(2)(f) through [(j)] (k) preferably in the custodial home, the established child care setting, or other environment familiar to the child.
   (b) For children five months of age or older, but younger than nine months of age:
      (i) nine hours of parent-time per week to be specified by the court or the noncustodial preferably:
         (A) divided into three parent-time periods; and
         (B) in the custodial home, established child care setting, or other environment familiar to the child; and
      (ii) two hours on the holidays and in the years specified in Subsections 30-3-35(2)(f) through [(j)] (k) preferably in the custodial home, the established child care setting, or other environment familiar to the child.

Standard Parent-time Schedule for Children Who Are Five Years or Older

The text of section 30-3-35 (the parent-time schedule for children five years or older) is as follows.

(1) The parent-time schedule in this section applies to children 5 to 18 years of age.
(2) If the parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule, the following schedule shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which the noncustodial parent and the child shall be entitled.

111 Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-35.5 (LexisNexis 2013).
(a) (i) (A) One weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court, or Wednesday evening if not specified, from 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.;
(B) at the election of the noncustodial parent, one weekday from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed until 8:30 p.m., unless the court directs the application of Subsection (2)(a)(i); or
(C) at the election of the noncustodial parent, if school is not in session, one weekday from approximately 9 a.m., accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule, until 8:30 p.m. if the noncustodial parent is available to be with the child, unless the court directs the application of Subsection (2)(a)(i)(A) or (2)(a)(i)(B).

(d) If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the noncustodial parent shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day.
(e) If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period.
(ii) (A) At the election of the noncustodial parent, parent-time over a scheduled holiday weekend may begin from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend; or

(h) The custodial parent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

(i) If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent’s half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are let out for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school.

[(i)] (j) Father's Day shall be spent with the natural or adoptive father every year beginning at 9 a.m. until 7 p.m. on the holiday.

(i) the best interests of the child; (ii) each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and
(iii) any other factors the court considers material.
(3) [Any elections] An election required to be made in accordance with this section by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the decree and made a part of the parent-time order. (4) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(e)(i), the Halloween holiday may not be extended beyond the hours designated in Subsection (2)(g)(vi).

Utah Code Annotated section 30-3-35.1 says:

(1) The optional parent-time schedule in this section applies to a child 5 to 18 years of age. This schedule is 145 overnights. Any impact on child support shall be consistent with Subsection 78B-12-102(15).
(2) The parents and the court may consider the following increased parent-time schedule as a minimum when the parties agree or the noncustodial parent can demonstrate the following:
(a) the noncustodial parent has been actively involved in the child's life; (b) the parties are able to communicate effectively regarding the child, or the noncustodial parent has a plan to accomplish effective communications regarding the child; (c) the noncustodial parent has the ability to facilitate the increased parent-time;
(d) the increased parent-time would be in the best interest of the child; and
(e) any other factor the court considers relevant.
(3) In determining whether a noncustodial parent has been actively involved in the child's life, the court shall consider:
(a) demonstrated responsibility in caring for the child;
(b) involvement in child care;
(c) presence or volunteer efforts in the child's school and at extracurricular activities;
(d) assistance with the child's homework;
(e) involvement in preparation of meals, bath time, and bedtime for the child;
(f) bonding with the child; and (g) any other factor the court considers relevant.
(4) In determining whether a noncustodial parent has the ability to facilitate the increased parent-time, the court shall consider:
(a) the geographic distance between the residences of the parents and the distance between the parents' residences and the child's school;
(b) the noncustodial parent's ability to assist with after school care;
(c) the health of the child and the noncustodial parent, consistent with Subsection 30-3-10(6);
(d) flexibility of employment or other schedule of the parent;
(e) ability to provide appropriate playtime with the child;
(f) history and ability of the parent to implement a flexible schedule for the child;
(g) physical facilities of the noncustodial parent's residence; and
(h) any other factor the court considers relevant.
(5) An election required to be made in accordance with this section by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the decree and made a part of the parent-time order. An election may only be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's schedule.

(6) If the parties agree or the court enters an order for the optional parent-time schedule as set forth in this section, a parenting plan in compliance with Sections 30-3-10.7 through 30-3-10.10 shall be filed with any order incorporating the following optional parent-time schedule:

(a) The noncustodial parent or the court may specify one weekday for parent-time. If no day is specified, weekday parent-time shall be on Wednesday from 5:30 p.m. until the following day when delivering the child to school, or until 8 a.m., if there is no school the following day. Once the election of the weekday is made, it may only be changed in accordance with Subsection (5). At the election of the noncustodial parent, weekday parent-time may commence:

(i) from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed; or

(ii) if school is not in session, and the parent is available to be with the child, at approximately 8 a.m., accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule.

(b) Beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the decree, the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to alternating weekends beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the decree from 6 p.m. on Friday until Monday when delivering the child to school, or until 8 a.m. if there is no school on Monday. At the election of the noncustodial parent, weekend parent-time may commence:

(i) from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed on Friday; or

(ii) if school is not in session, and the parent is available to be with the child, at approximately 8 a.m. on Friday, accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule.

(c) The provisions of Subsections 30-3-35(2)(f) through (o) are incorporated into this section and constitute the parent-time schedule with the exception that all instances that require the noncustodial parent to return the child at any time after 6 p.m. be changed so that the noncustodial parent is required to return the child to school the next morning or at 8 a.m., if there is no school.

(7) A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the noncustodial parent may pick up the child if the custodial parent is aware of the identity of the individual, and if the noncustodial parent will be with the child by 7 p.m.

(8) Weekends include any "snow" days, teacher development days, or other days when school is not scheduled and that are contiguous to the weekend period.

(9) Holidays include any "snow" days, teacher development days after the child begins the school year, or other days when school is not scheduled, contiguous to the holiday period, and take precedence over weekend parent-time. Changes may not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend parent-time schedule.

(a) If a holiday falls on a school day, the noncustodial parent shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day.

(b) If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period.

(c) At the election of the noncustodial parent, parent-time over a scheduled holiday weekend may begin from the time the child's school is dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend or, if school is not in session, and if the noncustodial parent is available to be with the child, parent-time over a scheduled holiday weekend may begin at approximately 8 a.m., accommodating the custodial parent's work schedule, unless the court directs the application of Subsection (6)(a).

(10) Birthdays take precedence over holidays and extended parent-time, except Mother's Day and Father's Day. Birthdays do not take precedence over uninterrupted parent-time if the parent exercising uninterrupted time is out of town for the uninterrupted extended parent-time. At the discretion of the noncustodial parent, other siblings may be taken along for birthdays.

(11) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(b), the Halloween holiday may not be extended beyond the hours designated in Subsection 30-3-35(2)(g)(vi).

(12) If there is a child aged 5 to 18 and a child under the age of five who are the natural or adopted children of the parties, the parents and the court should consider an upward deviation for parent-time with all the minor children so that parent-time is uniform based on a schedule pursuant to this section.\(^\text{112}\)

Special Circumstances

Section 30-3-36 deals with special circumstances.\(^\text{113}\) It provides that children should be gradually reintroduced to an unfamiliar noncustodial parent.\(^\text{114}\) It also provides that, when a child travels with a parent, the other parent should have the itinerary of travel dates, destinations, places to be reached, and the name and phone number of a knowledgeable third party.\(^\text{115}\)

Relocation

Section 30-3-37 deals with relocation.\(^\text{116}\) A parent who is relocating (150 miles or more from the “residence specified in the court’s decree”) needs to give “60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent.”\(^\text{117}\) The court may “make appropriate orders regarding the parent-time and costs”, considering the best

Section 30-3-32(3)(b) of the Utah Code Annotated defines Christmas school vacation as “(i) for a single child, the time period beginning on the evening the child is released from school for the Christmas or winter school break and ending the evening before the child returns to school; and (ii) for multiple children when the children's school schedules differ, the time period beginning on the first evening all children's schools are released for the Christmas or winter school break and ending the evening before any of the children returns to school.”

interest of the child and other factors. “If the court determines that relocation is not in the best interest of the child, and the custodial parent relocates, the court may order a change of custody.”

“Unless otherwise ordered by the court, upon relocation,” the noncustodial parent is to have the child(ren) (ages 5 to 18) for one-half of the summer break (or “off-track time”) as well as Thanksgiving (during odd numbered years), spring break (during odd numbered years), winter break (during even numbered years), and fall break (during even numbered years).

In addition, “at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent”, the noncustodial parent is entitled to one weekend per month.

For children under the age of five, the court is to set a parent-time schedule based on the child(ren)’s age and developmental needs, distance between parents, travel arrangements and costs, level of attachment, and other relevant factors.

Unless the noncustodial parent specifies otherwise or unless there is a conflict with holiday parent-time, this monthly weekend parent-time is to be on the last weekend of the month. If there is a conflict with holiday parent-time, this monthly weekend parent-time is to be on the next to last weekend of the month. This monthly weekend parent-time is to include teacher development days and snow days that are “contiguous with” the monthly weekend parent-time.

If “finances and distance preclude the exercise of minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent during the school year, the court should consider awarding more time for the noncustodial parent during the summer time if it is in the best interests of the children.” “Unless otherwise ordered by the court the relocating party shall be responsible for all of the child’s travel expenses” related to this relocation parent-time, except for half of the travel expense for the summer visit. A noncustodial parent who has been found in contempt for failure to pay child support, is responsible for all of the child’s parent-time travel expenses, unless the court orders otherwise.

The court has discretion to order a minimum of thirty days of uninterrupted parent-time with the noncustodial parent during extended parent-time, and the court is to specify who “is responsible for the child’s travel expenses.”

A parent who does not comply with a notice of relocation “shall be in contempt of the court’s order.”

Under certain circumstances, section 30-3-40 of the Utah Code Annotated allows family members of a noncustodial parent to exercise the noncustodial parent’s parent-time rights while that parent is away in military service.

Noncompliance with a Parent-time Order

The court may award costs and attorney fees to a prevailing parent or close family member for noncompliance with a visitation or parent-time order. The court may also order “any other appropriate equitable remedy” including payment of child care and transportation expenses and lost wages.

Utah’s Child Support Guidelines

Utah’s child support guidelines act as a rebuttable presumption for determining the amount of child support.132 There are instructions for calculating child support for sole,133 joint,134 and split custody135.

The tables for calculating child support amounts are found in sections 78B-12-301 and 78B-12-302 of the Utah Code Annotated.136 If the combined monthly income is higher than $100,000 the judge sets support on a case-by-case basis, but the amount can not be less than the highest amount shown in the tables.137 If the adjusted gross income of a parent is $649 or less, the amount of child support is to be calculated on a case-by-case basis, but is not to be less than $30 per month.138

The guidelines can be rebutted, and, if so, support will be calculated based upon the standard of living, age, relative wealth and income, ability to earn, needs of each party and the child, and responsibility for the support of others.139 Worksheets for calculating child support are found in appendix G of the Utah Code Annotated court rules volume and in the appendices in the forms portion of this book.

Calculating Income

Adjusted gross income is to be used in calculating child support and only the income of natural or adoptive parents may be considered.140 Gross income is “prospective income from any source”, such as salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, rents, gifts, prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous marriages, annuities, capital gains, Social Security, workers’ compensation, unemployment, disability insurance, and “payments from ‘nonmeanstested’ government programs.”141 Excluded from gross income are: Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, General Assistance, SNAP benefits, housing subsidies, benefits received under the Job Training

Partnership Act, etc. Income is based upon one full-time 40-hour job unless, just prior to the original support order, it is found that the parent normally and consistently worked more than 40 hours per week at their job. Income from self-employment or business is to be calculated at the gross income minus “expenses necessary to allow the business to operate at a reasonable level.” When possible, income should be calculated “on an annual basis and then recalculated to determine the average gross monthly income.” Income verification is required. Incarceration of at least six months may not be treated as voluntary unemployment by the office in establishing or modifying a support order.

In certain cases income may be imputed. This is allowed only by stipulation, default, or, in contested cases, after a hearing and a judge or “presiding officer in an administrative proceeding enters findings of fact as to the evidentiary basis for the imputation.” Income is imputed on the basis of employment potential and probable earnings as considering, to the extent known: employment opportunities, work history, occupational qualifications, educational attainment, literacy, age, health, criminal record, other employment barriers and background factors, and prevailing earnings and job availability. If there is “no recent work history or a parent’s occupation is unknown,” income may “be imputed at least at the federal minimum wage for a 40-hour work week.” Income is not to be imputed “if any of the following conditions exist and the condition is not of a temporary nature:” (1) reasonable child care costs would “approach or equal” the amount the custodial parent could make; (2) the “parent is physically or mentally unable to earn minimum wage;” (3) the parent is receiving job training to “establish basic job skills;” or (4) “unusual emotional or physical needs of a child require the custodial parent’s presence in the home.” The fact that someone is pursuing a bachelor’s degree does not exempt him from having income imputed.

Social security benefits given to a child because of the earnings of a parent are to be a credit for that parent against their child support obligation.

Child support is to be reduced by 50% for each child during times when the child (by court order or written agreement) is with the noncustodial parent at least 25 of 30 consecutive days. Consecutive days mean that the child is with the noncustodial parent for a minimum of 12 of any 30 consecutive days. Child support is to be reduced by 25% for each child during times when the child (by court order or written agreement) is with the noncustodial parent at least 12 of 30 consecutive days.

Materials That Need to be Filed

In any matter in which child support is ordered, the moving party needs to submit a child support worksheet, financial verification, a written statement that says whether or not the amount of support is consistent with the child support guidelines, and identification information.

Termination of Child Support

Child support terminates at age 18 (or upon graduation from high school in the normal and expected year of graduation if that is after the child turns 18), or upon the child’s death, emancipation, marriage, entry into military service, or adoption. However, “courts in divorce actions may order support to age 21.”

Medical and Child Care Expenses

Every decree of divorce is to include “an order assigning responsibility for the payment of reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses of a dependent child” and an order requiring insurance if available “at a reasonable cost.” A parent will be ordered to provide insurance, if available at a reasonable cost, and the parents are to

Utah Code Ann. § 78B-12-203(5) (LexisNexis 2012). The identifying information is to include the party’s social security number, driver’s license number, addresses, phone numbers; it is also to include the name, address, and phone number of their employer; upon entry of a support order, each party is to submit this same identifying information. equally share the cost of insurance premiums and uninsured expenses.161 Both are to give timely information to each other about insurance and expenses.162

Each parent is to share equally in reasonable work-related child care expenses.163 These amounts are to be paid monthly.164 Written verification is required of the cost and the provider’s identity.165 Changes in the child care arrangements need to be disclosed to the other party within thirty days or the parent may not get reimbursed for the expenses.166

Tax Deduction

26 U.S.C. § 71 says that, for tax purposes, a person’s gross income includes alimony but not child support. Section 78B-12-217 of the Utah Code Annotated makes no presumption about who should get to claim a child for federal and state income tax purposes; however, the court or administrative agency, in awarding the tax exemption, is to consider the “relative contribution of each parent to the cost of raising the child” and “the relative tax benefit to each parent.” 26 U.S.C. § 152(c)(4)(B) says that the parent claiming a child as a dependent for tax purposes is to be the parent the child resides with most of the time.

Bankruptcy

Chapter 6
Alimony167

Alimony is a continuation of each spouse’s duty to support and maintain the other. The court has “broad latitude” in setting alimony and these determinations “will not be lightly disturbed.”168 The court is to “consider at least the following factors in determining alimony”: (1) the financial condition and needs of the person who is to receive alimony, (2) the earning capacity of the person who is to receive alimony “including the impact of diminished workplace experience resulting from primarily caring for a child of the payor spouse”; (3) the ability of the person who is to pay alimony to provide support, (4) “the length of the marriage”, (5) whether or not the “recipient spouse has custody of minor children” who require support, (6) whether or not the “recipient spouse worked in a business” that was “owned or operated by the payor spouse”, and (7) whether or not “the recipient spouse directly contributed to” an “increase in the payor spouse’s skill by paying for education received by the payor spouse or enabling the payor spouse to attend school during the marriage.”169 The court is to consider all sources of income including overtime, second jobs, self employment, etc.170

The court may consider fault in determining alimony.171 In Childs v. Childs, 967 P.2d 942, 946-47 (Utah Ct. App. 1998), a woman was given a lower amount of alimony, in part, because of her fault in engaging in an extra-marital affair.

Generally, the court should look at the standard of living that existed at the time of the separation, in determining alimony; but the court is to “consider all relevant facts and equitable principles” and “may, in its discretion, base alimony on the standard of living that existed at the time of trial.”172 In short-term marriages, “when no children have been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may consider the standard of living that existed at the time of the marriage.”173 “The court may, under appropriate circumstances, attempt to equalize the parties’ respective standards of living.”174

If a long-term marriage is ending on the “threshold of a major change in the income of one of the spouses due to the collective efforts of both,” the change is to “be considered in dividing the marital property and in determining” alimony.175 Similarly, if “one spouse’s earning capacity has been greatly enhanced” by “the efforts of both spouses during the marriage, the court may make a compensating adjustment” in regard to alimony as well as in the division of marital property. In short-term marriages, where “no children have been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may” restore each party to the condition that “existed at the time of the marriage.”

Alimony generally is not to be ordered for a period longer than the number of years of the marriage.

Unless income withholding is involved or otherwise ordered by the court, half of alimony is to be paid on the fifth day of each month and the other half on the twentieth of the month.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, alimony “automatically terminates upon the remarriage or death of the former spouse” but is to resume if “the remarriage is annulled and found to be void ab initio” and the paying spouse is “made a party to the action.” An order of alimony also terminates “upon establishment by the party paying alimony that the former spouse, after the order for alimony is issued, cohabits with another person even if the former spouse is not cohabitating with another person when the party paying alimony files the motion to terminate.” The party seeking termination must do so no later than one year from the day the party knew or should have known about the cohabitation.

179 Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-10.5 (LexisNexis 2013).
Chapter 7

Debts

In a divorce, the court may include equitable orders relating to debts.\textsuperscript{182} The court has “considerable latitude of discretion in adjusting financial . . . interests.”\textsuperscript{183}

There is no fixed formula for distributing a marital estate.\textsuperscript{184} The court could consider such things as each party’s ability to pay, whether the debt was jointly incurred, whether or not the debt can be documented, when the debt was incurred, and who is going to receive the property.

Spouses are not liable for each other’s separate debts that were incurred during the marriage, other than family expenses.\textsuperscript{185} The court may specify which party is responsible for payment of joint debts incurred during the marriage, require the parties to notify creditors regarding the court’s division of the debts, and provide for enforcement.\textsuperscript{186}

A decree cannot alter or end any joint contractual obligation between the parties and a creditor.\textsuperscript{187} However, a creditor cannot make a negative credit report against a party who has not been ordered to pay, unless they have first demanded payment by the other party, who then failed to pay.\textsuperscript{188} When there is a court order or an administrative order, providing for payment of children’s medical expenses, a creditor (who has a copy of the order) may be prohibited from charging more than the court-ordered amount, of a parent who has paid their court-ordered portion in full, and from making a negative credit report regarding that parent.\textsuperscript{189} If one party ultimately fails to repay a joint debt, as ordered by the court, the remedy is a contempt order and judgment for money paid.

Some parties try to insure future liability for debts, even after bankruptcy, by putting “hold harmless” language in the decree (i.e., one party agrees to pay certain debts and to hold the other party harmless from liability on those debts). This will only help if payment of those debts is “in the nature of support”.\textsuperscript{190}

\textsuperscript{185} Utah Code Ann. § 30-2-5 (LexisNexis 2013). These are the “expenses of the family and the education of the children” and the husband and wife “may be sued jointly or separately” for these expenses. Utah Code Annotated § 30-2-9 (LexisNexis 2013). Case law has found family expenses to include expenses incurred while a wife was ill, Izatt v. Izatt, 627 P.2d 49, 52 (Utah 1981), as well as expenses related to children, Gulley v. Gulley, 570 P.2d 127, 128-29 (Utah 1977).

Debt payment can be considered part of alimony, but 26 U.S.C. § 71(a) says that alimony is taxable. Debts could also be considered as additional child support, but the ongoing duty to pay child support ends when the youngest child turns eighteen. \(^{191}\)

If a creditor seeks to take a debtor’s property for unpaid debts, certain items of property are exempt, such as $30,000 of the value of the “primary personal residence”. \(^{192}\) The following things are also among those that are exempt: alimony, burial plots, health aids, some appliances and furniture, wearing apparel, year’s supply of provisions, and bedding. \(^{193}\) Also exempt is a motor vehicle, “not exceeding $3,000 in value”. \(^{194}\) However, a creditor may collect against exempt property, other than unemployment benefits, to enforce certain claims (e.g., alimony and support). \(^{195}\) A person’s earnings may be garnished under Rule 64D of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. This cannot exceed 25% of a person’s disposable earnings (50% if for child support). \(^{196}\)

11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(5) says that domestic support obligations are not dischargeable, in bankruptcy. The federal or state court decides if the debt was in the form of alimony or support. \(^{197}\) Types of bankruptcy include Chapter 7 (liquidation (voluntary or involuntary)); Chapter 13 (individual reorganization of debts); Chapter 11 (business reorganization of debts); Chapter 12 (farm reorganization of debts). \(^{198}\) 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(2) says that bankruptcy proceedings do not “operate as a stay” of a civil action in regard to child custody/visitation or dissolution of a marriage or “collection of a domestic support obligation from property that is not property of the [bankruptcy] estate”.

Chapter 8
Property Division

In a divorce, the court may include equitable orders relating to property.\textsuperscript{199} Orders must be “fair and reasonable to all concerned.”\textsuperscript{200} The court has “considerable latitude of discretion” in “adjusting . . . property interests” in a divorce action.\textsuperscript{201} The court’s “disposition of property” should be “as it deems fair, equitable, and necessary for the protection and welfare of the parties.”\textsuperscript{202}

The court first needs to “properly categorize the parties’ property as part of the marital estate or as the separate property of one or the other.”\textsuperscript{203} There is a presumption that each party is “entitled to all of his or her separate property and fifty percent of the marital property.”\textsuperscript{204} “[T]he court should then consider the existence of exceptional circumstances. . . .”\textsuperscript{205}

There is “no fixed formula” for dividing property in a divorce.\textsuperscript{206}

Pension plans that have accrued during the marriage are “subject to equitable distribution”. In \textit{Woodward v. Woodward}, 656 P.2d 431, 433-434 (Utah 1982), the court ruled that equitable division of a pension plan means giving each spouse one-half of the benefits earned during the marriage (i.e., one-half of the “portion of the retirement benefits represented by the number of years of the marriage divided by the number of years the [wage-earner’s] employment”).\textsuperscript{207} This formula may be modified, however, to adapt to the varied circumstances related to a defined benefit plan so long as the division is still equitable.\textsuperscript{208}

A QDRO (domestic relations order) is required in order to give ERISA retirement plan benefits to someone other than the participant (e.g., a former spouse). 29 U.S.C. § 1003 says that, generally, this applies “to any employee benefit plan” that is established or maintained by an employer that is “engaged in commerce or in any industry or activity affecting commerce”. 29 U.S.C. § 1056(d)(3)(C) says that a domestic relations order must provide the participant’s name and address, all alternative payees’ names and addresses, the amount or percentage of their benefits, the number of payments, and a list of each plan to which the order applies.

Chapter 9
Temporary Orders

Some cases require a temporary court order regarding the rights and obligations of the parties. There are several types of temporary orders that may be used in a domestic relations case: ex parte temporary restraining orders,209 protective orders,210 and other temporary orders.

Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Orders

Ex parte temporary restraining orders (ordered without first giving notice to the other party) are possible (1) it clearly appears that immediate or irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result prior to a hearing, and (2) documentation of efforts to give notice to the opposing party are provided to the court.211 Temporary orders generally expire within fourteen days.212 This rule does not limit the equitable powers of the court in administering temporary restraining orders in domestic relations cases.213 (Form 15 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure provides a sample application for temporary restraining order.)

Protective Orders

In situations where there has been cohabitant abuse, the victim may get a protective order or an ex parte protective order.214 The following things can be included in an ex parte protective order: (1) a prohibition against further abuse or threats of abuse, (2) a prohibition against harassment or communication, (3) exclusion from the abuse victim’s residence, place employment, etc., (4) prohibition against use or possession of a weapon, (5) use of personal effects and an automobile, (6) maintenance of an existing wireless telephone contact or account, (7) temporary custody of the children, (8) assistance of the office of the Guardian Ad Litem, (9) other relief needed to provide safety and welfare, and (10) child support and alimony (income verification needs to be brought to the hearing).215 (Violation of items 1-5 are criminal offenses.216 Violation of items 6, 8, and 9 are civil offenses.217)

209 See Utah R. Civ. P. 65A(b).
210 See Utah Code Ann. §§ 78B-7-103 (LexisNexis 2012).
211 Utah R. Civ. P. 65A(b)(1).
212 Utah R. Civ. P. 65A(b)(2).
213 Utah R. Civ. P. 65A(f).
Expedited service is required of the sheriff’s office in these cases. A hearing is to be held within 20 days after the ex parte order is issued.219

The civil portion of the final order is generally to last 150 days or less.220 After two years, a hearing may be held to dismiss the criminal portion of the final order.221 Violation of the “safety” provisions of a protective order is a class A misdemeanor.222 Violations of the other provisions is subject to a contempt proceeding.223

Other Temporary Orders

Sometimes parties need non-emergency, temporary relief, prior to the divorce trial (e.g., for support during the pendency of the action). This is allowed by Utah Code Annotated §§ 30-1-17.2(1), 30-3-3(3), and 78A-2-220(1)(i). The court is given the motion, a memorandum, a proposed order, and a request to submit for a decision; the court may order a hearing.224 Judgments and written motions need to be served on the opposing party or their attorney, in accordance with Rule 5(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

Chapter 10
Decrees of Divorce

The final document in a divorce case is the decree of divorce.225 The decree may include orders regarding the children, medical coverage for the children, property, and debts.226 The court needs to take evidence, even if by affidavit, to support the decree of divorce.227

The decree is absolute: (1) upon signing by the court and entry by the clerk in the register of actions, or (2) at the expiration of a time period designated by the court, unless an appeal or other proceeding for review is pending, or (3) when the court otherwise orders, prior to the decree becoming absolute, if “sufficient cause” exists.228 A court can extend the designated time period up to six months after the “signing and entry of the decree”.229 The file, except for the final order, can be classified as private.230

Enforcement

Disobedience of a court order is contempt.231

When the contempt is not committed in the presence of the court, evidence of the contempt is given to the court through an affidavit or statement of the facts.232 An application can be made to the court for an order to show cause to enforce an existing order or to seek “sanctions for violating an existing order”.233 A request for an order is to be done by motion and generally must be in writing, stating the grounds and the relief that is being requested.234 Motions are generally to be accompanied by a supporting memorandum.235 After briefing has been completed the parties can “file a ‘Request to Submit for Decision.’”236

The court may hold a hearing on a motion.237 And an order can be entered.238

If a person is found in contempt, the court may order payment of a fine not exceeding $1,000, and/or sentence the person to 30 days (or less) in jail.239 In addition, the court may order the person to pay the aggrieved party enough money to compensate them for their costs and expenses caused by the contempt.240 If a person is refusing to do something that the law requires them to do, and which are capable of doing, the court may imprison the person until they do it.241

If a parent does not comply with the minimum amount of parent-time or child support ordered, the court can order ten or more hours of compensatory service and order the offender to participate in workshops, classes, or counseling.242

Enforcement of a child support order may be pursued at any time “within four years after the date the youngest child reaches majority” or “eight years from the date of entry of the sum certain judgment by a tribunal.”243

Criminal nonsupport of children under 18 years of age is a class A misdemeanor (for a first offense).\textsuperscript{245} Repeat offenses can result in a conviction of a third degree felony.\textsuperscript{246}

Recovery Services

The office (Office of Recovery Services\textsuperscript{247} or O.R.S.) has the duty of providing child support services if O.R.S. has received an application for child support services, the state has provided public assistance, or the child lives out of the home under state custody or care.\textsuperscript{248} In cases where the children are receiving public assistance, immediate income withholding is available (as of the effective date of the order), even if no delinquency exists.\textsuperscript{249} In cases where the children are not receiving public assistance, immediate income withholding is also available (as of the effective date of the order), even if no delinquency exists, unless preempted by good cause or by a written contract provision.\textsuperscript{250} O.R.S. can use an administrative proceeding to require payment of child support.\textsuperscript{251} 42 U.S.C. § 664(a)(2)(A) says that agencies like O.R.S. can intercept federal and state income tax refunds to satisfy unpaid child support.

Each child support payment is, “on or after the date it is due,” a judgment.\textsuperscript{252}

“The court has continuing jurisdiction to make subsequent changes or new orders for the custody of the children and their support, maintenance, health, and dental care, and for distribution of the property and obligations for debts as is reasonable and necessary.” Attorney fees may be awarded if a petition to modify or defense against modification was not done in good faith.

Modification of Custody or Parent Time

In order to justify a modification of custody the court must find that a substantial change in circumstances has occurred and that the change is in the best interest of the child. For example, it would be wrong for a court to “focus on a [noncustodial parent’s] re-marriage and the consequent circumstances of a stepmother as a full-time homemaker in finding a change of circumstances.” But that fact that a noncustodial parent has overcome her emotional problems is an example of a substantial change of circumstances.

To modify or terminate an order of joint legal or physical custody, the court must find that there has been a “material and substantial change of circumstances” and that modification would be “an improvement for and in the best interest of the child.”

Where the original order was stipulated rather than litigated, the court can modify custody without applying a “strict changed circumstances” test.

Utah courts can modify custody decrees from other states if they could now make an initial custody determination and if the other state’s court determines that it no longer has “exclusive continuing jurisdiction” or that Utah would be a more convenient forum or if one of the states’ courts determines that the child and parents (or the person acting as parent) no longer live in the other state.

If a parent moves 150 miles or more from the original residence, the court may order the relocating parent to pay some of the costs associated with exercising parent time. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the noncustodial parent is entitled to spend certain time with the children upon relocation of one of the parties. During odd numbered years it is the Thanksgiving holiday and spring school break, if applicable.\(^{263}\) During even numbered years it is the winter and fall breaks.\(^ {264}\) In addition, extended parent-time is to be one-half of the summer or off-track time\(^ {265}\) and, “one weekend per month, at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent.”\(^ {266}\)

Modification of Child Support

“If the prior court order contains a stipulated provision for the automatic adjustment for prospective support, the prospective support shall be the amount as stated in the order, without a showing of a material change of circumstances,” so long as the stipulated provision is “clear and unambiguous”, self-executing, provides for support equaling or exceeding the base child support amount found in the guidelines, and “does not allow a decrease in support as a results of the obligor’s voluntary reduction of income.”\(^ {267}\)

The trial court retains jurisdiction to modify child support.\(^ {268}\)

If the amount was not set or modified within the past three years, the court can adjust the amount.\(^ {269}\) If the court finds a permanent difference of 10% or more and if “the order adjusting the payor’s ordered support amount does not deviate from the guidelines”, the court will adjust the amount.\(^ {270}\) A showing of substantial change in circumstances is not required.\(^ {271}\)

The court may be petitioned, anytime, to adjust the support amount upon a showing of a substantial change in circumstances (e.g., a material change in custody, a material change in the relative wealth or assets of a party, a change of 30% or more in a parent’s income, a material change “in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn,” a material change in the medical needs of a child, or a material change in the legal responsibility of a parent for the support of other people).\(^ {272}\) If the court finds a permanent change of 15% or more, in the amount of support, it will change the amount.\(^ {273}\)

Child support cannot be changed retroactively, but it can begin with the date that the pleading was served on the person who is to pay the additional child support.274

Modification of Alimony

The court can modify alimony “based on a substantial material change in circumstances not foreseeable at the time of the divorce.”275 The court is not permitted to modify or award new alimony for “needs of the recipient that did not exist at the time the decree was entered, unless the court finds extenuating circumstances that justify that action.”276

The court can consider a “subsequent spouse’s financial ability to share living expenses” and “may consider the income of a subsequent spouse if . . . the “payor’s improper conduct justifies that consideration.”277

Alimony may be given later even if not awarded in the initial decree.278

Modification of Property and Debt Division

“The court has continuing jurisdiction to make subsequent changes or new orders . . . for distribution of the property and obligations for debts as is reasonable and necessary.”279

Other Considerations

The juvenile court “may acquire jurisdiction” in child abuse, child neglect, and dependent child cases, and change custody, support, and parent-time, “as necessary to implement the order of the juvenile court for the safety and welfare of the child.”280

274 Utah Code Ann. § 78B-12-112(4) (LexisNexis 2012).
279 Utah Code Ann. § 30-3-5(3) (LexisNexis Supp. 2019). A substantial change of circumstances must be found before a property division can be modified. See Childs v. Callahan, 993 P.2d 244, 247 (Utah Ct. App. 1999) (vesting of a military retirement was not a sufficient change of circumstances).
Civil cases are generally required to submit to alternative dispute resolution.281

Mediation, a form of alternative dispute resolution, is defined as “a private forum in which one or more impartial persons facilitate communication between parties to a civil action to promote a mutually acceptable resolution or settlement.”282 The purpose of alternative dispute resolution is to “promote the efficient and effective operation of the courts of this state by authorizing and encouraging the use of alternative methods of dispute resolution to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of civil actions filed in the courts of this state.”283 Confidentiality of ADR procedures is intended to aid in the “successful resolution of civil actions in a just, speedy, and inexpensive manner . . . .”284 The “Judicial Council may by rule establish experimental and permanent ADR programs . . . .”285 Mediation is governed by the Utah Rules of Court-Annexed Alternative Dispute Resolution286 and Rule 4-510 of the Utah Code of Judicial Administration.

Unless all agree, only the parties, representatives, and mediator may attend mediation sessions.287 A settlement agreement between the parties as a result of mediation can be put in writing, filed with the court, and enforced as a judgment of the court.288

A wide range of civil cases are to be referred to the alternative dispute resolution (“ADR”) program and only certain kinds of cases are exempt from the ADR rules.289 ADR is to proceed upon the filing of the responsive pleading unless the parties have participated in another ADR program or have been excused by the court.290

281 See Utah Code Jud. Administration 4-510.05(1)(A).
286 These rules are located at http://www.utcourts.gov/resources/rules/adr/.
288 Utah Code Ann. § 78B-6-207(3)(a) (LexisNexis 2012). A lawyer who serves “as a mediator in a mediation in which the parties have fully resolved all issues” is allowed to “prepare formal documents that memorialize and implement the agreement reached in mediation;” the lawyer-mediator “shall recommend that each party seek independent legal advice before executing the documents;” the lawyer-mediator “with the informed consent of all parties confirmed in writing, may record or may file the documents in court, informing the court of the mediator’s limited representation of the parties for the sole purpose of obtaining such legal approval as may be necessary.” Utah R. Prof. Conduct 2.4(c).
289 See Utah Code Jud. Admin. 4-510.06.
290 Utah Code Jud. Admin. 4-510.05(1)(A).
There is currently an Expedited Parent-time Program in the third judicial district.\(^2^9^1\) “If a parent files a motion in the third judicial district alleging that court-ordered parent-time rights are being violated, the clerk of the court, after assigning the case to a judge, shall refer the case . . . for assignment to a mediator . . . .”\(^2^9^2\) The mediation can be terminated if an agreement is reached or if the parents are unable to reach an agreement.\(^2^9^3\) A judge may sign a mediated agreement as an order, “order the parents to receive services to facilitate parent-time”, “proceed with the case”, or “take other appropriate action.”\(^2^9^4\) If abuse is alleged, the judge and Division of Child and Family Services are to be informed immediately.\(^2^9^5\) Expenses of mediation are to be “divided equally between the parents”, unless one of them “failed to participate in good faith” or “made an unfounded assertion or claim” of abuse (in which case they may be required to pay more).\(^2^9^6\)

In addition, there is a mandatory domestic mediation program throughout the entire state.\(^2^9^7\) After the filing of an answer to a complaint for divorce, the parties are to participate in at least one mediation session.\(^2^9^8\) Unless the court orders otherwise or the parties agree, the cost of mediation is to “be divided equally between the parties.”\(^2^9^9\) The parties may be excused from mediation for good cause.\(^3^0^0\)

Mediators will go through seven steps or stages of mediation.\(^3^0^1\) The first is intake, in which the parties contact the mediator’s office and schedule the first visit.\(^3^0^2\) The second is contracting, in which the parties review the goals of mediation, discuss the role of the mediator, agree to work together, agree to costs, and sign a formal mediation agreement.\(^3^0^3\) The third is gathering information, in which the mediator gets a description of the facts and feelings of the parties and the parties begin to listen to each other.\(^3^0^4\) The fourth step is identifying issues, in which the mediator makes a list of the issues, based upon the statements of the parties.\(^3^0^5\) The fifth is agenda setting, in which the mediators work with the parties to organize and prioritize issues.\(^3^0^6\) The sixth is resolving each issue, in which the mediator (a) gathers additional information, (b) helps the parties explore needs and interests, (c) helps the parties list options to deal with issues, (d) has the parties evaluate options, and (e) has the parties negotiate with one another and make decisions. Sometimes the mediator will caucus, or meet with the parties individually, “to help them consider their alternatives and to encourage them to make movement in order to reach agreement.” The final step is reviewing and drafting final agreements.

ADVISORY NOTE

Fillable online forms are provided at the Utah Online Court Assistance Program (OCAP) website, and readers are strongly encouraged to use that system whenever possible. Documents generated by the OCAP site automatically meet court requirements.

The documents included in this and the following appendixes are provided for reference only. Links to Utah court website source documents are provided when available. Please be aware that while PDF documents are included for the purposes of this publication, many of these forms are also available in DOC format (used by Microsoft Word, Google Docs and other open source word processing programs).

Certain documents, such as the Complaint (see page A1-5), Stipulation (see Appendix 6) and QDRO (see Appendix 8), must be individually customized to represent the circumstances of a particular case and no official form is provided. An example of a typical document for each type is provided for reference, and these are identified by a note on each first page. These forms should never be used “as is”. Careful drafting of these documents (preferably by an attorney or a licensed paralegal) is necessary in every case to insure that any documents submitted to a court are accurate and relevant.
Interpretation. If you do not speak or understand English, contact the court at least 3 days before the hearing or mediation, and an interpreter will be provided.

(Parenting Plan (Utah Code 30-3-10.7 through 30-3-10.10)

Petitioner

v.

Respondent

Case Number

Judge

Commissioner

Utah law requires the following:

• A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

• The objectives of a parenting plan are to:
  o provide for the children’s physical care and emotional stability;
  o provide for the children’s changing needs in a way that minimizes the need to change the parenting plan;
  o minimize the children’s exposure to conflict between the parents;
  o state the authority and responsibilities of each parent to the children;
  o encourage the parents to meet their responsibilities to their children through agreement rather than judicial decision; and Protect the best interests of the children.

- Each parent must follow the parenting plan even if the other does not. If a parent does not follow the parenting plan, the court may find that parent in contempt of court.
- For further guidance, see Utah Code 30-3-33

v. ________________________________________________________________ [ ] Defendant/Respondent

The State of Utah to __________________________________________________________ (party’s name):

A lawsuit has been filed against you. You must respond in writing by the deadline for the court to consider your side. The written response is called an Answer.

Se ha presentado una demanda en su contra. Si desea que el juez considere su lado, deberá presentar una respuesta por escrito dentro del periodo de tiempo establecido. La respuesta por escrito es conocida como la Respuesta.
Deadline!
Your Answer must be filed with the court and served on the other party within 21 days of the date you were served with this Summons.

If you do not file and serve your Answer by the deadline, the other party can ask the court for a default judgment. A default judgment means the other party can get what they asked for, and you do not get the chance to tell your side of the story.

¡Fecha límite para contestar!
Su Respuesta debe ser presentada en el tribunal y también con la debida entrega formal a la otra parte dentro de 21 días a partir de la fecha en que usted recibió la entrega formal del Citatorio.

Si usted no presenta una respuesta ni hace la entrega formal dentro del plazo establecido, la otra parte podrá pedirle al juez que asiente un fallo por incumplimiento. Un fallo por incumplimiento significa que la otra parte recibe lo que pidió, y usted no tendrá la oportunidad de decir su versión de los hechos.

Read the complaint/petition
The Complaint or Petition has been filed with the court and explains what the other party is asking for in their lawsuit. Read it carefully.

Lea la demanda o petición
La demanda o petición fue presentada en el tribunal y ésta explica lo que la otra parte pide. Léala cuidadosamente.

Answer the complaint/petition
You must file your Answer in writing with the court within 21 days of the date you were served with this Summons. You can find an Answer form on the court’s website (www.utcourts.gov/howto/answer/).

Cómo responder a la demanda o petición
Usted debe presentar su Respuesta por escrito en el tribunal dentro de 21 días a partir de la fecha en que usted recibió la entrega formal del Citatorio. En la página del tribunal (www.utcourts.gov/howto/answer/) puede encontrar el formulario para la presentación de la Respuesta.

Serve the Answer on the other party
You must email, mail or hand deliver a copy of your Answer to the other party (or their attorney or licensed paralegal practitioner, if they have one) at the address shown at the top left corner of the first page of this Summons.

Entrega formal de la respuesta a la otra parte
Usted deberá enviar por correo electrónico, correo o entregar personalmente una copia de su Respuesta a la otra parte (o a su abogado o asistente legal, si tiene) a la dirección localizada en la esquina izquierda superior de la primera hoja del citatorio.
Finding help
The court’s Finding Legal Help web page (www.utcourts.gov/howto/legalassist/) provides information about the ways you can get legal help, including the Self-Help Center, reduced-fee attorneys, limited legal help and free legal clinics.

Cómo encontrar ayuda legal
Para información sobre maneras de obtener ayuda legal, vea nuestra página de Internet Cómo encontrar ayuda legal. Algunas maneras de hablar con un abogado son por medio de una visita a un taller jurídico gratuito, o mediante el Centro de Ayuda. Estos talleres proveen información legal general y dan consejo legal breve. También hay ayuda legal a precios de descuento.

Sample Temporary Order Documents

Information about Temporary Orders and sample forms for filing are available at: https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/Temporary_Order/. Temporary Orders are used to govern issues such as child custody, parent time and support, alimony, property distribution, attorney fees and other matters during divorce or parentage proceedings. Parties must follow a temporary order until it is changed or until there is a final order (judgment) in the case.

Motions (Requests) for a Temporary Order may be filed together with or after the paperwork for the Petition for Divorce. Temporary Orders require justification and are not automatic. For the temporary order to govern joint legal or physical custody, the paperwork must include a Parenting Plan (see Appendix 1). If the temporary order is intended to govern any financial payments, such as alimony, child support or attorney fees, the Financial Declaration (Appendix 7) and the appropriate Child Support Worksheets (Appendix 13) must also be included.

The website also includes forms for cases when children are not involved, as well as for filing objections.

Motion for Temporary Order – With Children

[ ] Hearing Requested

Petitioner v.

Case Number

Respondent

Judge

Commissioner

I ask the court to enter temporary orders in the paragraphs I have marked below.

1. [ ] Minor children

   The petitioner and the respondent are the parents of the following minor children:
   (Add additional pages if needed.)
Child’s name
(first, middle and last) | Child’s | Month and year of birth
--- | --- | ---
Example: Jennie Eliza Jones | Female | January 2017

The minor children have lived at the addresses listed below and with the persons listed below for the past five years: (Add additional pages if needed.)

| Child’s name | Address (street, city, state, ZIP) | Dates child lived at this address | Name(s) of person(s) who lived with child at this address | Relationship(s) to child
--- | --- | --- | --- | ---
Example: Jennie Jones | 123 Maple St Mayberry, UT 84444 | 5/15/15 to present | Jane Doe, John Jones | Mother, maternal grandfather

2. Child custody

All orders involving minor children will include two types of custody: physical custody and legal custody.

- Physical custody deals with where the children live and how many overnights the children spend with each parent.
  - Sole physical custody means that the children live primarily with one parent and have parent time (visitation) with the other parent (see parent-time options in Section 3).
  - Joint physical custody means that the children typically spend at least 30% of overnights with both parents each year and that both parents contribute to the expenses of the child in addition to paying child support.
  - Split physical custody means that where there is more than one child, each parent is awarded sole physical custody of at least one of the children.

- Legal custody deals with access to information and decision making.
Sole legal custody means that one parent has the right to make important decisions about the child.

Joint legal custody means that both parents: (1) have the right to information about the child (events, appointments, access to school and medical records, etc.); and (2) that both parents discuss and make major decisions together – (education, religion, medical, extra-curricular activities, etc.) but designate a parent to make the final decision if they cannot agree.

If the parent who pays child care expenses fails to provide written verification of child care above, that parent may be denied the right to recover or receive credit for the other parent’s one-half share of the child care expense.

b. all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses incurred for the children and paid by a parent, including deductibles and co-payments.

The parent ordered to maintain insurance must provide written verification of coverage to the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services when the children are first enrolled, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year and upon any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days after the date that parent knew or should have known of the change.

The parent receiving written verification will reimburse the parent who incurred the medical or dental expenses one-half of the amount within 30 days after receiving the written verification.

Because the agreed-upon issues differ for every couple, there is NO standard form for the stipulation. BOTH parties must sign the stipulation, which is a formal agreement. Issues included in the stipulation cannot be contested later. You are encouraged to use OCAP or the services of a licensed legal professional (Lawyer or Paralegal.

https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/financial_declaration/

NOTE: Most of these examples assume that the Petitioner’s Spouse has been properly notified of the divorce filings and any scheduled hearings and has failed to respond. Default decrees are not allowed in cases when both parties are actively involved in the proceedings.

There are specific rules for how cases are managed when one party is on active duty with any branch of the military. Those forms and the others included on the following pages should be downloaded from the court website if available. Completion of forms via OCAP is always the preferred method whenever possible.

There are 2 methods for requesting the modification of a Divorce Decree. The most common option is by Petition. The documents for a Petition to Modify Child Support are included in this Appendix. Modifications by Motion are less complicated, but also have stricter requirements and are used less often. It is very important to use the correct form for your circumstances. See https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/modification/child_support/#motion-petition to determine which forms you should use.

See also:
https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/modification/child_support/
https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/modification/parent_time

(Note: the first document (re-)opens a case, and should be served in the same manner as the initial divorce petition.)

In general, a child support order is not modifiable for at least 3 years after it has been issued. An order can be modified by Motion if it has been three or more years since the order was entered and:

- there is a difference of 10% or more between the support amount as ordered and the support amount as required under the guidelines; and
- the difference is not temporary; and
- the proposed child support amount is consistent with the guidelines.

If any of the three factors is not met, there must be grounds to make the modification (see the website for details) and it must be requested by Petition. Petitions to Modify will usually require additional steps to resolve, often including a hearing.

Requests to modify custody &/or parenting time must always be submitted by Petition.

Again, using the OCAP website to prepare the necessary documents is strongly recommended.

There is a FREE Child Support Calculator at https://orscsc.dhs.utah.gov/orscscapp-hs/orscscweb/ for creating the correct documents for a particular case. If neither of those options can be used, specific forms based on the existing legal and physical custody arrangement should be downloaded from https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/modification/child_support/ and https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/divorce/support.html#child. Be aware that current financial declarations as well as the child support worksheets (see Appendix 13) will be required with either a Motion or a Petition.

To submit a Motion to modify support, follow the instructions at https://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/modification/child_support/#motion.
This is a private record.

This is a Tier 2 case.

SUPPORT

(Grounds (reasons) to modify child support: Paragraphs (4), through (7) are separate grounds to modify child support. At least one Paragraph must apply, but more than one might apply. [ ] the relative wealth and income of the parties;
[ ] the payor's ability to earn;

CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENT

(Choose (11) if the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) is collecting child support payments. Choose (12) if not.)
Child support payment to ORS

Office of Recovery Services (ORS) is collecting child support payments. I request mandatory income withholding from the salary and wages of the Payor. Income withholding should apply to existing and future payors. Any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the payor should be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. Income withholding should apply to existing and future payors. Unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere, all child support payments should be made to the Office of Recovery Services. Child support should be due on or before the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent.

(B) Payment method. I request that: (Choose one.)

[ ] (i) the Payee provide to Payor the information necessary to set up direct deposit through Payor's employer. I request that upon receipt of the information, Payor’s employer establish direct deposit to an account of Payee’s choice.

OR

[ ] (ii) child support be paid directly to the Payee. The Payor has paid other court ordered support on time. (Attach evidence of timely payments.) Income withholding for this child support would not be in the children’s best interest because:

OTHER SUPPORT REQUESTS

(B) The parent who incurs child care expenses provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.

(C) The parent who incurs child care expenses notify the other parent of any change of a child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change.

(D) The parent not directly paying for child care shall begin paying their share of child care expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense.

(E) A parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

(F) Other day-care or education expense request:

(15) [ ] Change in child tax exemption award. (Complete this section only if you are asking to change the award of the child tax exemption.) The controlling order awards the child tax exemption to [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent under the following terms:
The controlling order should be modified to award [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent the child tax exemption under the following terms:

(16) Child support arrears. Child support arrears may be determined by further judicial or administrative process.

(17) Change in income. Each party must notify the other within ten days of any change in monthly income.

(18) Other. I request that the court enter the following other orders related to my request for modification of child support:

(19) [ ] Costs and attorney fees. I request that the other party pay my costs and attorney fees because, without this payment, I would be unable to bring this action.

(20) [ ] Stipulation. The other party has stipulated to the requested child support amount. (Attach Stipulation to Enter Judgment.)

(21) Remainder of order unchanged. The remainder of the order described in Paragraph (1) should remain unchanged.

Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order on Petition to Modify Child Support

The matter before the court is [ ] Petitioner’s [ ] Respondent’s Petition to Modify Child Support. This matter is resolved by:

[ ] The default of [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent.

[ ] The stipulation of the parties.

[ ] The pleadings and other papers of the parties.

[ ] A hearing held on ______________________ (date).

Petitioner

[ ] was [ ] was not present
Having considered the documents filed with the court, the evidence and the arguments, and now being fully informed,

The Court Finds That:

(1) Controlling child support order. The controlling child support order is:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title of order:</th>
<th>Name of Court:</th>
<th>State</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Address of Clerk of Court:</td>
<td>Phone Number of Clerk of Court:</td>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Paragraphs (2)(A), (2)(B) and (2)(C) are separate conditions for jurisdiction. At least one Paragraph must apply.)

(2)(A) Jurisdiction. This court has jurisdiction under Utah Code Section 78B-14-205. A Utah court issued the controlling child support order consistent with Utah law, and the order has not been modified by a tribunal of another state, and: (At least one must apply.)

[ ] on the date the Petition to Modify Child Support was filed, Utah was the residence of the petitioner or respondent or the children for whose benefit the order was issued; or

[ ] The non-resident parties have filed consent that this court may continue to exercise jurisdiction to modify its order.

(2)(B) [ ] Jurisdiction. This court has jurisdiction under Utah Code Section 78B-14-613. (All must apply.)

[ ] The controlling child support order, issued in another state, has been registered and confirmed in Utah, and

[ ] the order may be modified under the law of the issuing state, and [ ] petitioner and respondent reside in Utah, and

[ ] the children do not reside in the issuing state.

(2)(C) [ ] Jurisdiction. This court has jurisdiction under Utah Code Section 78B-14-611. The controlling child support order, issued in another state, has been registered and confirmed in Utah, the order may be modified under the law of the issuing state, and Utah can exercise personal jurisdiction over any non-resident individual in this action or the individual’s guardian or conservator because:

(At least one must apply.)

[ ] the individual has been personally served with notice within Utah; or

[ ] the individual submits to the jurisdiction of Utah by consent, by entering a general appearance, or by filing a responsive document having the effect of waiving any contest to personal jurisdiction; or

[ ] the individual resided with the children in Utah; or

[ ] the individual resided in Utah and provided prenatal expenses or child support; or

[ ] the children reside in Utah as a result of the acts or directives of the individual; or

[ ] the individual engaged in sexual intercourse in Utah and the child may have been conceived by that act of intercourse; or

[ ] the individual asserted parentage in the putative father registry maintained in Utah by the state registrar of vital records in the Department of Health; or

[ ] there is a basis for the exercise of personal jurisdiction consistent with the Utah Constitution and the United States Constitution;
AND (At least one must apply.)

[ ] The party requesting modification does not reside in Utah, and neither the answering party nor the children reside in the issuing state; or

[ ] Neither party resides in Utah, but the children do, and both parties have filed consents in the issuing court for a Utah court to modify the support order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction; or [ ] Neither party resides in Utah, but this court has personal jurisdiction over at least one of the parties, and both parties have filed consents in the issuing court for a Utah court to modify the support order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

(3) Relationship to children. The party requesting modification is the:

[ ] payor (person who pays child support)

[ ] payee (person who receives child support); and the [ ] mother of

[ ] father of

[ ] legal guardian, conservator or custodian of the children more fully described in the attached Non-public Information Form.

(Paragraphs (4) through (8) are separate grounds to modify child support. At least one Paragraph must apply)

(4) [ ] Grounds to modify. The controlling child support order should be modified because ___________________________ (child’s name) is emancipated.

(5) [ ] Grounds to modify. The controlling child support order should be modified because there has been a material change:

[ ] in the availability, coverage, or reasonableness of cost of health care insurance of the [ ] payor [ ] payee; and/or

[ ] in work-related or education-related child care expenses of the [ ] payor [ ] payee.

(6) [ ] Grounds to modify. The controlling child support order should be modified because: (All must apply.)

[ ] it has not been modified within the last three years; and

[ ] there is a difference of 10% or more between the support amount as ordered and the support amount as required under the guidelines; and
[ ] the difference is not temporary.

(7) [ ] Grounds to modify. There has been a material change: (At least one must apply.)

[ ] in custody; or

[ ] in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; or

[ ] of 30% or more in the income of a parent; or

[ ] in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; or

[ ] in the medical needs of the children; or

[ ] in the legal responsibilities of a parent for the support of others resulting in a difference, which is not temporary, of 15% or more between the support amount as ordered and the support amount as required under the guidelines.

(8) [ ] Change in child tax exemption award. The controlling order awards the child tax exemption to [ ] petitioner [ ] respondent under the following terms:

[ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent should be awarded the child tax exemption under the following terms:

The payor has no child support arrears, and the change in the award of the tax exemption will result in a tax benefit to the parent awarded the exemption.

(9) Child Support Guidelines. The modified child support is based on the parties' income or is imputed based on their work history.

(A) [ ] The requested child support amount is consistent with the guidelines.

OR
(B) [ ] The amount of child support requested is NOT consistent with the guidelines because complying with a provision of the guidelines or ordering an award amount resulting from use of the guidelines would be unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of the children after considering: (Check all that apply.)

[ ] the standard of living and situation of the parties;
[ ] the relative wealth and income of the parties;
[ ] the payor’s ability to earn;
[ ] the payee’s ability to earn;
[ ] an incapacitated adult child’s ability to earn;
[ ] benefits received by or on behalf of an incapacitated adult child;
[ ] the needs of the payee, the payor, and the children;
[ ] the ages of the parties;
[ ] the responsibilities of the payor and the payee for the support of others.

The Court Concludes That:

(10) [ ] does [ ] does not have jurisdiction.

(11) There [ ] are [ ] are not grounds to modify the controlling child support order.

(12) [ ] To enable [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent to prosecute or defend this action, it is necessary that [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent pay _____% of the costs and attorney fees of the other party.

The Court Orders That: (Complete only those sections where there is a change.)

(13) [ ] The Petition to Modify Child Support is denied.

(14) [ ] The controlling child support order is modified as follows:

(15) [ ] Amount. [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent must pay $__________ each month to support the children.

(16) [ ] Payee. (Choose (9)(A) if the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) is collecting child support payments. Choose (9)(B) if not.)

(A) [ ] To ORS. Office of Recovery Services (ORS) is collecting child support payments. Income withholding shall be made from the salary and wages of the Payor. Any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the payor may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. Income withholding should apply to existing and future payors. Unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere, all child support payments should be made to the Office of Recovery Services. Child support should be due on or before the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent.

(B) [ ] To payee ______________________________ (name of person who will receive child support payments) (Complete (17)(A) and (17)(B).)

(17) [ ] Payment schedule. ORS is not collecting child support payments. Child support shall be paid: (Choose one.)

[ ] (A) one-half by the 5th day of each month and one-half by the 20th day of each month.

OR

_________ % On or before the _____ day of each month

Appendix 11: Sample Modification Documents

A11-52
See https://www.utcourts.gov/mediation/divmed/ for additional forms and information.

The State of Utah requires participation in at least one session of mediation if the divorce is disputed. Mediation is typically less expensive than a court ruling, and the parties are often more satisfied with the result. The court self-help website lists mediators throughout the state. With the approval of BOTH the ADR Office and the Court, the mandatory mediation requirement can be excused if certain conditions are met.
Sample Agreement to Mediate (NOT from utcourts.gov)

We, _______________________________ and _______________________________, agree to participate in mediation, with _______________________________ as the mediator. We agree to the following guidelines.

1. We agree to sincerely attempt to resolve the issues by fully and genuinely searching for fair and workable solutions.

2. We agree to be honest and to completely disclose all relevant information and legally discoverable documents with the other party and the mediator.

3. We agree to be courteous throughout the sessions.

4. We understand that the mediator is a neutral third party whose only purpose is to promote communication and help the parties reach an understanding as to how the issues will be resolved.

5. We understand that it is our obligation to seek independent legal, accounting, and other professional advice and assistance (e.g., having an attorney prepare the actual court papers).

6. The mediator will not reveal anything discussed in the mediation, other than (a) the mediation agreement, (b) incidents of abuse, or (c) threats of violence, without the permission of both parties. The parties agree that they will never subpoena the mediator as a witness or subpoena any documents of the mediator in any legal or administrative proceeding concerning this dispute. They further agree to reimburse the mediator for any expenses he incurs in any action to quash such subpoenas.

7. We agree that either party may, upon the consent of both parties, hold private sessions with the mediator at their or the mediator’s request. Except for concealment of assets and matters which the mediator is legally bound to disclose, the parties may specify what will remain confidential from these private sessions.
8. Either party or the mediator may terminate mediation at any time.

9. We agree to be on time.

Appendix 13: Child Support Worksheets and Official Child Support Table
INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY WORKSHEET

Line 1. Enter the number of natural and adopted children of the mother and father for whom support is to be determined. Do not include any children of either parent by another partner on this line. If a child for whom support is to be determined is an unemancipated minor who does not live with his parents, use the total number of children, including the unemancipated minor, by that set of parents for Line 1.

Line 2a. Enter the mother's and father's gross monthly income. U.C.A. 78B-12-203(1) states: “As used in the guidelines, ‘gross income’ includes prospective income from any source, including earned and nonearned income sources which may include salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, rents, gifts from anyone, prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous marriages, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation, income replacement disability insurance benefits, and payments from 'nonmeans-tested’ government programs.” U.C.A. 78B-12-203(2) states: “Income from earned income sources is limited to the equivalent of one full-time 40-hour job.” Refer to U.C.A. 78B-12-203 for additional information about determining gross income.

All income must be verified. Verification includes: year to date pay stubs, employer statements or records, the last year's tax return and documentation of non-earned income appropriate to the source.

Line 2b. Enter the amount of alimony either parent is court ordered to pay and actually pays to another parent [U.C.A. 78B-12-204(1)]. Do not include alimony payments for this case. Alimony payments must be verified. Cancelled checks or a statement from the recipient of the alimony may be accepted as verification.

Line 2c. Enter the amount of support either parent is court ordered to pay for children by another partner [(U.C.A. 78B-12-102(7)]. Previously ordered support may include specifically ordered payments toward a child's medical expenses, child care, or child support [U.C.A. 78B-12-102(7)]. A copy of the order is required for verification.

Line 2d. U.C.A. 78B-12-210(6) and (7) state: “(6) (a) Natural or adoptive children of either parent who live in the home of that parent and are not children in common to both parties may at the option of either party be taken into account under the guidelines in setting or modifying a child support award, as provided in Subsection (7). Credit may not be given if: (i) by giving credit to the obligor, children for whom a prior support order exists would have their child support reduced; or (ii) by giving credit to the obligee for a present family, the obligation of the obligor would increase. (b) Additional worksheets shall be prepared that compute the obligations of the respective parents for the additional children. The obligations shall then be subtracted from the appropriate parent's income before determining the award in the instant case.

“(7) In a proceeding to adjust or modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children born after entry of the order and who are not in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the award but may not be applied: (a) for the benefit of the obligee if the credit would increase the support obligation of the obligor from the most recent order; or (b) for the benefit of the obligor if the amount of support received by the obligee would be decreased from the most recent order.”

Use the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE FATHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HIS PRESENT HOME and/or the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE MOTHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HER PRESENT HOME to compute the obligations of the respective parents for the additional children.

Line 3. Complete the calculation as directed.

Line 4. The amount on the "Combined Child Support Obligation Table" shows the amount BOTH parents combined should contribute for the support of their child(ren).

Line 5. Calculate each parent's share of the amount in Line 4 as a percentage figure.

Line 6. Calculate each parent’s share of the amount in Line 4 as a dollar amount.

Line 7. This is the total number of overnights the children will have with each parent. Each parent must have at least 111 overnights to qualify for Joint Physical Custody (U.C.A. 78-12-208).

Line 7b. The rest of the calculation will be made for the parent who has the child(ren) the lesser number of overnights. So identify this parent here and continue the calculation for only this parent.

Line 8a. Complete the calculation as directed. This is the mathematical figure that will be used to reduce the base support obligation for overnights totaling between 110 to 130 [U.C.A. 78B-12-208 (3) (a)].

Line 8b. Complete the calculation as directed. This is the combined support obligation as a dollar figure for this parent.

Line 8c. Complete the calculation as directed. This is this parent’s share of the base support obligation as a dollar figure.
Appendix 13: Child Support Worksheets and Official Child Support Table

Line 9a. If both parents have the child for more than 131 overnights, then continue the calculation as directed. This is the mathematical figure that will be used to reduce the base support obligation for any overnights greater than 130 that the child(ren) have with the parent who has the child(ren) the lesser number of overnights [U.C.A. 78B-12-208 (3) (b)]. Otherwise go to Line 10.

Line 9b. Complete the calculation as directed. This is the combined support obligation as a dollar figure for this parent.

Line 9c. Complete the calculation as directed. This is this parent’s share of the base support obligation as a dollar figure.

Line 10. Designate which parent must pay support and the support amount by completing the calculation as directed. The Base Child Support Award is the amount the obligor pays to the obligee all 12 months of the year. See the Insurance Premium and Child Care Adjustment Worksheet to determine how the insurance premiums and child care expenses may change the amount the obligor pays to the obligee.

Line 11. Designate which parent must pay support.

Line 12. Complete Line 12 to indicate if the amount ordered deviates from the guideline amount in Line 10.

Line 13. Complete Line 13 if the obligor will not be ordered to pay the guideline amount from either the "Combined Child Support Obligation Table" or the "Low Income Table."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SOLE CUSTODY WORKSHEET

Line 1. Enter the number of natural and adopted children of the mother and father for whom support is to be determined. Do not include any children of either parent by another partner on this line. If a child for whom support is to be determined is an unemancipated minor who does not live with his parents, use the total number of children, including the unemancipated minor, by that set of parents for Line 1.

Line 2a. Enter the mother's and father's gross monthly income. U.C.A. 78B-12-203(1) states: “As used in the guidelines, ‘gross income’ includes prospective income from any source, including earned and nonearned income sources which may include salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, rents, gifts from anyone, prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous marriages, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation, income replacement disability insurance benefits, and payments from ‘nonmeans-tested’ government programs.” U.C.A. 78B-12-203(2) states: “Income from earned income sources is limited to the equivalent of one full-time 40-hour job.” Refer to U.C.A. 78B-12-203 for additional information about determining gross income.

All income must be verified. Verification includes: year to date pay stubs, employer statements or records, the last year's tax return and documentation of non-earned income appropriate to the source.

Line 2b. Enter the amount of alimony either parent is court ordered to pay and actually pays to another parent [U.C.A. 78B-12-204(1)]. Do not include alimony payments for this case. Alimony payments must be verified. Canceled checks or a statement from the recipient of the alimony may be accepted as verification.

Line 2c. Enter the amount of support either parent is court ordered to pay for children by another partner [U.C.A. 78B-12-204(1)]. Previously ordered support may include specifically ordered payments toward a child's medical expenses, child care, or child support [U.C.A. 78B-12-102(7)]. A copy of the order is required for verification.

Line 2d. U.C.A. 78B-12-210(6) and (7) state: “(6) (a) Natural or adoptive children of either parent who live in the home of that parent and are not children in common to both parties may at the option of either party be taken into account under the guidelines in setting or modifying a child support award, as provided in Subsection (7). Credit may not be given if: (i) by giving credit to the obligor, children for whom a prior support order exists would have their child support reduced; or (ii) by giving credit to the obligee for a present family, the obligation of the obligor would increase. (b) Additional worksheets shall be prepared that compute the obligations of the respective parents for the additional children. Use the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE FATHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HIS PRESENT HOME and/or the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE MOTHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HER PRESENT HOME to compute the obligations of the respective parents for the additional children.

Line 3. (See U.C.A. 78B-12-205) If the obligor's income is over $1,050 complete the calculation as directed. If the obligor's income is $650 to $1,050 then calculate the child support award using the "Combined Child Support Obligation Table" and the "Low Income Table." The child support award will be the lesser of the two amounts. Enter the lesser of the two amounts on Line 7. If the obligor's income is $649 or less, refer to U.C.A. 78B-12-205(6).

Line 4. The amount on the "Combined Child Support Obligation Table" shows the amount BOTH parents combined should contribute for the support of their children.

Line 5. Calculate each parent's share of the amount in Line 4 as a percentage figure.

Line 6. Calculate each parent's share of the amount in Line 4 as a dollar amount.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SPLIT CUSTODY WORKSHEET

Line 1. Enter the number of natural and adopted children of the mother and father for support is to be determined. Do not include any children of either parent by another partner this line. If a child for whom support is to be determined is an unemancipated minor who does not live with his parents, use the total number of children, including the unemancipated minor, by that set of parents for Line 1.

Line 2. Complete the computation as directed.

Line 3a. Enter the mother's and father's gross monthly income. U.C.A. 78B-12-203(1) states: “As used in the guidelines, ‘gross income’ includes prospective income from any source, including earned and nonearned income sources which may include salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, rents, gifts from anyone, prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous marriages, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation, income replacement disability insurance benefits, and payments from ‘nonmeans-tested’ government programs.” U.C.A. 78B-12-203(2) states: “Income from earned income sources is limited to the equivalent of one full-time 40-hour job.” Refer to U.C.A. 78B-12-203 for additional information about determining gross income.

All income must be verified. Verification includes: year to date pay stubs, employer statements or records, the last year's tax return and documentation of non-earned income appropriate to the source.

Line 3b. Enter the amount of alimony either parent is court ordered to pay and actually pays to another parent [U.C.A. 78B-12-204(1)]. Do not include alimony payments for this case. Alimony payments must be verified. Cancelled checks or a statement from the recipient of the alimony may be accepted as verification.

Line 3c. Enter the amount of support either parent is court ordered to pay for children by another partner [U.C.A. 78B-12-204(1)]. Previously ordered support may include specifically ordered payments toward a child's medical expenses, child care, or child support [U.C.A. 78B-12-102(7)]. A copy of the order is required for verification.

Line 3d. U.C.A. 78B-12-210(6) and (7) state: “(6) (a) Natural or adoptive children of either parent who live in the home of that parent and are not children in common to both parties may at the option of either party be taken into account under the guidelines in setting or modifying a child support award, as provided in Subsection (7). Credit may not be given if: (i) by giving credit to the obligor, children for whom a prior support order exists would have their child support reduced; or (ii) by giving credit to the obligee for a present family, the obligation of the obligor would increase. (b) Additional worksheets shall be prepared that compute the obligations of the respective parents for the additional children. The obligations shall then be subtracted from the appropriate parent's income before determining the award in the instant case.

“(7) In a proceeding to adjust or modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children born after entry of the order and who are not in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the award but may not be applied: (a) for the benefit of the obligee if the credit would increase the support obligation of the obligor from the most recent order; or (b) for the benefit of the obligor if the amount of support received by the obligee would be decreased from the most recent order.”

Use the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE FATHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HIS PRESENT HOME and/or the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE MOTHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HER PRESENT HOME to compute the obligations of the respective parents for the additional children.

Line 4. Complete the calculation as directed.

Line 5. The amount on the "Combined Child Support Obligation Table" shows the amount BOTH parents combined should contribute for the support of their children.

Line 6. Calculate each parent's share of the amount in Line 5 as a percentage figure.

Line 7. Calculate each parent's share of the amount in Line 5 as a dollar amount.

Line 8. Complete the calculation as directed. This is the mother's obligation to the father.

Line 9. Complete the calculation as directed. This is the father's obligation to the mother.

Line 10. The Base Child Support Award is the amount the obligor pays to the obligee. See the Insurance Premium and Child Care Adjustment Worksheet to determine how insurance premiums and child care expenses may change the amount the obligor pays to the obligee.

Line 11. Designate which parent must pay support.

Line 12. Complete Line 12 to indicate if the amount ordered deviates from the guideline amount in Line 10.

Line 13. Complete Line 13 if the obligor will not be ordered to pay the guideline amount from either the "Combined Child Support Obligation Table" or the "Low Income Table."

INSURANCE PREMIUM AND CHILD CARE ADJUSTMENT WORKSHEET

INSURANCE ADJUSTMENT

Use this section of the worksheet to calculate how the children’s medical insurance premium expenses change the amount the obligor pays to the obligee.

If the OBLIGOR parent is ordered to maintain medical insurance for the children complete this section:

A. Enter the amount of the children’s portion of the medical insurance premium actually paid by the obligor. $
B. Multiply Line A. by .50 to obtain the obligee’s share of the premium. $
C. Subtract the amount in Line B. from the base child support award to obtain the amount the obligor pays to the obligee for the months the premium is actually paid. Enter the result here. $

If the OBLIGEE parent is ordered to maintain medical insurance for the children complete this section:

D. Enter the amount of the children’s portion of the medical insurance premium actually paid by the obligee. $
E. Multiply Line D. by .50 to obtain the obligor’s share of the premium. $
F. Add the amount in Line E. to the base child support award to obtain the amount the obligor pays to the obligee for the months the premium is actually paid. Enter the result here. $

No credit or offset is allowed unless the premium is actually paid. If the premium is not paid, the obligor must pay the amount of the base child support award.

CHILD CARE ADJUSTMENT

Use this section of the worksheet to calculate how the children’s child care expenses change the amount the obligor pays to the obligee.

G. Enter the average amount of the monthly child care expense actually paid by the obligee. $
H. Multiply Line G. by .50 to obtain the obligor’s share of the child care expense. Enter the result here. $
Complete box I, J, or K. below.
I. If neither parent is maintaining insurance, add the amount in Line H. to the base child support award to obtain the amount the obligor pays to the obligee for the months the child care expense is incurred. Enter the result here. $
J. If the obligor is maintaining insurance, add the amount in Line H. to the amount in Line C. to obtain the amount the obligor pays to the obligee for the months the child care expense is incurred. Enter the result here. $
K. If the obligee is maintaining insurance, add the amount in Line H. to the amount in Line F. to obtain the amount the obligor pays to the obligee for the months the child care expense is incurred. Enter the result here. $
