The Brigham Young University International Law & Management Review (ILMR) publishes a winter and a spring issue each academic year. ILMR was originally established by the Foundation for International Law and Management, a nonprofit educational corporation that provided financial and advisory support to the ILMR. The ILMR continues to maintain relations with the Foundation's board of directors, which is comprised of law and management professionals and academics from around the world who are dedicated to promoting practical and progressive scholarship in the oft-intersecting areas of international law and management.

Subscriptions for U.S. addresses are US$40 for one year, $72 for two years, and $100 for three years. Subscriptions for non-U.S. addresses are US$50 for one year, $92 for two years, and $130 for three years. A single issue can be purchased for US$25 for U.S. addresses and $30 for non-U.S. addresses. Subscriptions are renewed automatically each year unless the ILMR receives a request for discontinuance.
