Introduction

The Brigham Young University Education and Law Journal is published annually by the J. Reuben Clark Law School and the Department of Educational Leadership. It provides a forum for scholarly works concerning legal topics within the field of education. The primary focus of the Journal is on discussions of legal issues faced by K-12 school administrators and teachers and their legal advisors. However, some papers regarding higher education are published occasionally.

The Journal's Management Committee invites you to submit papers with topics in the following themes for upcoming issues:

Spring 1997 Issue: Tensions Between Local, State and Federal Control of Education: Who Should Regulate or Set Policy for What?

Spring 1998 Issue: Separation of Church and State: First Amendment Rights of Free Speech and Religion

Topic proposals for the Spring 1998 Issue, and papers for the Spring 1997 Issue, should be submitted by September 30, 1996. An abstract, accompanied by a resume or vita for the author(s) should be included with submissions.

Completed papers must be accompanied by computer diskette, WordPerfect 5.1 for DOS is the preferred format. Abstracts and papers will be reviewed for appropriateness and duplication of topics. Selection for inclusion in the Journal will be based on the actual papers submitted. Papers on other topics will be considered, but only on a space available basis.

To submit papers, subscribe to the Journal, obtain past issues, or make comments, please write to:
