RE: State v. James Howland, Case No. 860331-CA

Dear Mr. Shea:

I received a notice that this case will be submitted to the Court without the State's brief if a brief is not filed today. Due to an overwhelming case load for myself and one other attorney currently assigned to the Criminal Appeals Section, Dan Larsen, I regret that I am unable to respond to the appellant's brief. After evaluating my caseload, I have determined that there are other cases, including capital appeals, that are much more deserving of my time than this particular case, a class A misdemeanor for which defendant long ago served his sentence. I, therefore, submit the case for the Court's consideration.

Very truly yours,

SANDRA L. SJOGREN
Assistant Attorney General
