MOTION TO FILE ADDENDUM
TO BRIEF OF APPELLANT

No. 19186

This case was briefed under the old appellate rules. The new appellate rules require relevant documents to be reproduced in an addendum (Rule 24f).

Although the addendum was not required at the time briefs were filed in this case, an addendum may be of assistance to the Court. Furthermore, an addendum may save the Court a substantial amount of time in researching the record.

The proposed Addendum (attached hereto) relates to Appellant's Reply Brief, page 5, footnote 1. Specifically, the addendum constitutes the Master Plan of West Jordan. R 673, et seq.)

West Jordan claims that the public hearing which approved the Master Plan, also approved the 7% tax on subdividers. (Ordinance No. 33.)

FILED
JUL 3 1985

West Jordan has not presented any agenda or minutes of the meeting. Thus the only evidence of the content of the meeting is the Master Plan itself.

DATED this 7 day of July, 1985.
