JURISDICTION OF APPELLATE COURT

This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §78-2(a)-3(2)(j) (1953 as amended) which grants jurisdiction over cases transferred to this Court from the Utah Supreme Court.

STATEMENT OF ISSUE PRESENTED AND STANDARD OF REVIEW

Did the trial court abuse its discretion in refusing to set aside a default judgment which was entered after a lengthy pattern of neglect by both the attorney and his clients? The trial court is afforded broad discretion in ruling on a motion to set aside a default judgment under Rule 60(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Only where the appellate court finds a clear abuse of this broad discretion should the trial court's decision be reversed. Russell v. Martell, 681 P.2d 1193, 1194 (Utah 1984); Gardiner and Gardiner Builders v. Swapp, 656 P.2d 429, 430 (Utah 1982); Board of Education of Granite School District v. Cox, 14 Utah 2d 385, 386, 384 P.2d 806, 807 (1963); Mayhew v. Standard Gilsonite Company, 14 Utah 2d 52, 53, 376 P.2d 951, 952 (1962); Airkem Intermountain, Inc. v. Parker, 30 Utah 2d 65, 67, 513 P.2d 429, 431 (1973).

DETERMINATIVE STATUTES AND RULES

"Mistakes; inadvertence; excusable neglect; newly discovered evidence; fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may in the furtherance of justice relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; . . . The motion shall be made within a reasonable time and for reasons (1), (2), (3), or (4), not more than 3 months after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken." Rule 60(b)(1), Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

A. Nature and Course of Proceedings: This is an appeal taken from the trial court's order denying defendants' motion to set aside a default judgment under Rule 60(b)(1) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. On June 3, 1991, the trial court signed an order striking defendants' answer and awarding default judgment in favor of plaintiff. (See Order Striking Answer and Awarding Default Judgment and Attorney's Fees, Addendum Exhibit "K".) On August 23, 1991 defendant moved the court to set aside the default judgment. (See Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "C".) On October 18, 1991, a hearing was held on defendants' motion and the court determined that a clear and inexcusable pattern of neglect by both the defendants and their attorney did not merit the setting aside of the default judgment. (See Reporter's Transcript of Hearing, Addendum Exhibit "J," pp. 10-11.)

B. Statement of Facts Relevant to Issue Presented:

1. On January 18, 1991, plaintiff's attorney sent a Request for Production of Documents to Grant G. Orton, the attorney for defendants. The mailing certificate indicates that the document was properly mailed to the address which Mr. Orton uses for his practice of law. The document was not returned by the post office. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p.2.)

2. On February 22, 1991, plaintiff's attorney sent Mr. Orton a letter reminding him that the time to answer the Request for Production of Documents had now passed and granting Mr. Orton an extension of time until March 1, 1991 to respond to the Request. Mr. Orton was duly advised that if he failed to respond on or before March 1, 1991, a motion to compel would be brought and sanctions would be requested. The letter was correctly mailed to Mr. Orton's business address and was not returned by the post office. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 2.)

3. On March 5, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed a Motion to Compel Production of Documents and asked the Court to award attorney's fees associated with bringing the motion because of defendants' complete lack of response. This motion was also duly mailed to defendants' counsel and was not returned by the post office. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 2.)

4. On April 1, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed with the Court and duly mailed to defendants' attorney a Notice to Submit for Decision. This document was also not returned by the post office. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 3.)

5. On April 5, 1991, the Court granted plaintiff's motion and ordered defendants to respond to the Request for Production of Documents within fifteen (15) days of April 5, 1991. The Court held in reserve the issue of awarding attorney's fees. The Court's Minute Entry was duly mailed to defendants' attorney at the same address to which plaintiff's attorney had been sending correspondence. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 3.)

6. On April 18, 1991, Mr. Orton telephoned plaintiff's counsel to apologize for neglecting the matter. Mr. Orton acknowledged that he received the Court's Minute Entry and the previous documents but had been too busy to get with Mr. Morse. Mr. Orton said that he told Mr. Morse about the Request for Production of Documents but he did not think Mr. Morse had done anything yet to assemble documents. Mr. Orton then requested additional time and plaintiff's attorney denied the request, reminding Mr. Orton that he had already been given three months to respond. Finally, Mr. Orton said that he could not locate the Request for Production of Documents and asked if plaintiff's attorney would send him a new set. Plaintiff's attorney offered to fax the document to Mr. Orton so that he could have it immediately. As soon as the telephone conversation ended, plaintiff's counsel faxed the Request for Production of Documents to Mr. Orton. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," pp. 3-4.) (See also Affidavit of Marlon L. Bates, Addendum Exhibit "H," pp. 2-3.)

7. On April 23, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed a Motion to Strike Answer, Enter Default Judgment and Award Attorney's Fees because of defendants' failure to respond in any manner within the time period ordered by the Court. A copy of this motion was duly mailed to Mr. Orton and was not returned by the post office. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 4.)

8. On May 7, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed a Notice to Submit and duly mailed a copy to Mr. Orton. The mailing was not returned by the post office. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 4.)

9. On May 21, 1991, the Court prepared a Minute Entry granting plaintiff's Motion to Strike Answer, Enter Default Judgment and Award Attorney's Fees. Once again, the Court properly sent a copy of the Minute Entry to Mr. Orton. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 4.)

10. On May 30, 1991, plaintiff's attorney sent to Mr. Orton a copy of the proposed Order Striking Answer and Awarding Default Judgment and Attorney's Fees. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 5.)

11. On June 3, 1991, the Court signed the proposed order. (See Order Denying Motion to Set Aside Default, Addendum Exhibit "K.")

12. On June 13, 1991, Clare Morse was personally served by a constable with two Motions and Orders in Supplemental Proceedings. One was served upon him in his capacity as the registered agent of Transamerica Equities, Inc., and the second was served upon him in his individual capacity. These motions fully explained on their face that judgment had been entered against both defendants in the amount of Fifty Thousand Two Hundred Thirty and No/100 Dollars ($50,230.00). (See Addendum Exhibit "B.")

13. Clare Morse and Transamerica Equities, Inc. did not show up at the hearing which was scheduled for June 30, 1991. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 13.)

14. On July 10, 1991, Clare Morse was personally served by a constable for a second time with two Motions and Orders in Supplemental Proceedings. (See Addendum Exhibit "B.")

15. Clare Morse and Transamerica Equities, Inc. did not show up at the hearing which was scheduled for July 23, 1991. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 6.)

16. On August 6, 1991, Clare Morse was personally served by a constable for a third time with two Orders to Show Cause. (See Addendum Exhibit "B.")

17. On August 12, 1991, one day before the Order to Show Cause hearing was scheduled, Clare Morse's new attorney, Wesley Sine, telephoned plaintiff's attorney and notified plaintiff's attorney that defendants had retained him to represent both defendants and that he would be filing a motion to set aside the default judgment. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 6.)

18. On August 23, 1991, defendants' new attorney filed a Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment. (See Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "C.")

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

The trial court carefully considered the merits of defendants' Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment and properly concluded that justice and equity would not be served by granting the motion. The basis of this conclusion was that both defendants and their attorney inexcusably neglected this case and several court orders over a period of seven and one-half months. Consequently, it would not be fair to reinstate the very litigation that defendants willfully avoided for such a long period of time.

ARGUMENT

As a general rule, courts in Utah are inclined to grant an applicant's motion to set aside a default judgment so that a case may be adjudicated on its merits rather than on procedural deficiencies. Westinghouse Electric Supply Co. v. Paul W. Larsen Contractor, Inc., 544 P.2d 876, 879 (Utah 1975). But it is also true that parties may lose their right to have their case adjudicated on the merits if their conduct so warrants. Id. at 879; Cox, 384 P.2d at 807. When a trial court undertakes this decision, it is dealing with equitable rather legal principles. Warren v. Dixon Ranch Company, 123 Utah 416, 417, 260 P.2d 741, 742 (1953). Consequently, the court may "exercise wide judicial discretion in weighing the factors of fairness and public convenience, and this court on appeal will reverse the trial court only where an abuse of this discretion is clearly shown." Id. at 742. The moving party has the burden of showing that he or she used "due diligence" and was prevented from appearing by circumstances over which he or she had no control. Airkem, 513 P.2d at 431. Warren, 260 P.2d at 742. Furthermore, a party cannot hide behind the negligence of his or her attorney in attempting to set aside a default judgment. Warren, 260 P.2d at 743. Gardiner, 656 P.2d at 430. The negligence of a party's attorney is attributable to that party through principles of agency. Russell, 681 P.2d at 1195.

When the legal principles described above are applied to the facts of this case, it is easy to understand why the trial court refused to set aside the default judgment. In the present case, both the defendants and their attorney demonstrated a complete disregard for the judicial process over a long period of time.

The defendants' attempt to create an image of their original attorney as a patriotic soldier with mail problems who was called to serve his county in the Kuwait War. (See Appellant Brief, p.6.) Unfortunately, the facts reveal several inconsistencies with this image. First, with respect to the attorney's involvement in the Kuwait War, he states in his affidavit that "During the months of January through May 1991, I have had numerous military assignments outside the State of Utah. . ." (See Affidavit of Grant G. Orton, Addendum Exhibit "F," p.2.) This is the extent to which we are informed of the attorney's military service during his period of neglect. The attorney does not state that he was unable to practice law during this period of time nor that he informed anyone of how his "numerous" assignments would affect the cases he was handling. The unrefuted fact is that defendants' attorney called plaintiff's attorney on April 18, 1991 (during the middle of the period of neglect) and apologized for failing to respond to the discovery request and acknowledged that he had received the trial court's minute entry granting plaintiff's motion to compel production of discovery. Defendants' attorney admitted that he had discussed the discovery with his clients but doubted that anything had been done by the clients to respond. Defendants' attorney further requested an extension of time because he was only two days away from the deadline imposed by the Court and this request was denied by plaintiff's attorney, who reminded him that he had already been given three months to respond.

Finally, defendants' attorney requested a second copy of the discovery request because he said he could not locate the original copy and plaintiff's attorney immediately faxed him a second copy. (See Affidavit of Marlon L. Bates, Addendum Exhibit "H," p.2.) Defendants' attorney did not refute any portion of this affidavit. Indeed, the above-referenced telephone conversation was objectively verified for the trial court by the billing records of the plaintiff's attorney which referenced this telephone conversation in early May of 1991, several months before this telephone conversation became an issue. (See "Exhibit C" to Affidavit of Marlon L. Bates, Addendum Exhibit "H.")

Right in the middle of defendants' attorney's alleged patriotic tour of military duty, he was practicing law in this very matter and had knowledge that his failure to respond to discovery would violate a court order compelling discovery. Notwithstanding this knowledge, absolutely nothing was done to respond and defendants' attorney took no action to withdraw from the case.

With respect to the alleged mail problems of defendants' attorney, he states in his affidavit that the post office would retain his mail during the times when his part-time secretary did not pick it up. Then he claims that this did not happen while he was on military assignments because when he checked with the post office, there was no mail retained. (See Affidavit of Grant G.

Orton, Addendum Exhibit "F," p.2.) With nothing more than this for an explanation of his mail problems, defendants' attorney denies he received a copy of the Judgment nor the motions filed before the Judgment was entered. (See Affidavit of Grant G. Orton, Addendum Exhibit "F," pp. 1-2.) It is undisputed that at least nine separate packages of documents were sent by plaintiff's attorney and the Court to defendants' attorney at his mailing address as contained on his pleadings from January through May of 1991. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 10.) It is also undisputed that none of these mailings from plaintiff's attorney were ever returned by the post office as undeliverable. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," pp. 2-5.) Furthermore, the magnitude of a mailing problem that completely prevented the delivery of all nine packages of legal documents over a five month period should have been serious enough to cause a prudent person to become aware of the problem and solve it. But even if this incredible story regarding the mail is accepted, defendants' attorney's telephone conversation with the plaintiff's attorney on April 18, 1991 establishes that defendants' attorney knew the status of the case at that time and could reasonably have expected that his total neglect of the court order to produce discovery would only make matters worse.

In sum, the trial court was well within its broad discretion to conclude that the neglect by defendants' counsel was inexcusable. And under Utah law, the negligence of one's counsel can be attributed to the client as previously explained on page 9.

Although the defendants' attorney's negligence can be attributed to the defendants, the trial court had a much easier decision to make because the defendants also neglected this matter in an inexcusable manner. The affidavits of the Constables establish that on June 13, 1991, July 10, 1991 and August 6, 1991, Clare Morse was personally served with Orders in Supplemental Proceedings and Orders to Show Cause. On these same three occasions, Clare Morse was also served on behalf of Transamerica Equities, Inc., of which he was and is the Vice-President. (See Addendum Exhibit "B.") Both Clare Morse and Transamerica Equities, Inc. willfully refused to comply with these orders to appear in court to testify regarding assets. In fact, it was not until one day before the third hearing was scheduled wherein a bench warrant for the arrest of Clare Morse and Transamerica Equities, Inc. was going to be issued that defendants' new counsel telephoned plaintiff's counsel and informed him that he had been retained to represent defendants to file a motion to set aside the default judgment. (See Opposition to Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment, Addendum Exhibit "G," p. 6.) Although Clare Morse claims that one of the three services was made upon his daughter rather than him, the constables' affidavits clearly show this was not the case. On all three occasions, Clare Morse was personally served with his own documents and with those on behalf of Transamerica Equities, Inc. Although defendants now argue that Clare Morse was not the registered agent of Transamerica Equities, Inc., they neglect to tell the Court that Clare Morse was and is the Vice-President and founder of the corporation. Consequently, both defendants had actual knowledge of the judgment from at least June 13, 1991 until the motion to set aside the judgment was filed on August 23, 1991. During this period of time, defendants completely disregarded the court's orders to appear in court. Notwithstanding this contempt for the court's orders and the judicial process, defendants now argue that the trial court abused its broad discretion by failing to reinstate the litigation to the place it was seven and one-half months before the neglect began. The trial court was properly within its broad equitable powers when it found that the defendants' willful violation of several court orders was too serious to allow the court to reinstate the litigation under equitable principles. (See Reporter's Transcript of Hearing, Addendum Exhibit "J," p. 11.)

CONCLUSION

The actions of defendants and their original attorney with respect to this litigation are reprehensible. They demonstrated the worst type of disregard for the judicial system. If trial courts award this type of serious and continuous abuse by reinstating litigation, our judicial system will be without any effective recourse to persuade lawyers and their clients to proceed in good faith and those who do proceed in good faith will be punished for their honorable efforts. The trial court wisely reviewed all the evidence and properly concluded that justice and equity would not be served by setting aside the default judgment. This Court should conclude that the trial court did not clearly abuse its broad discretion by affirming the decision of the trial court.

I. INTRODUCTION

This Memorandum is submitted to the provision of Rule 4-501, Utah Rules of Judicial Administration, in support of Defendants Grant G. Orton and Clare T. Morse's Motion to Set Aside Judgment and Sanctions filed by Plaintiff and served herewith.

II. STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS

The record now before the court establishes the following facts that are material to Plaintiff's Motion:

1. In response to service of the Summons and Complaint in the above matter upon the defendants Transamerica Equities Inc. and Clare T. Morse, an answer was filed and served by mail on behalf of Transamerica Equities, Inc. and Clare T.

Morse on or about January 11, 1991.

2. On July 10, 1991 Clare T. Morse and Transamerica Equities, Inc. learned for the first time that a Judgment had been obtained against Transamerica Equities, Inc. and Clare T. Morse in the instant matter when they were personally served by constable with a Motion and Order in Supplemental Proceedings.

3. Their attorney, Grant Orton was out of town on a military call up. Upon reviewing the files and inquiring into this matter with Grant Orton, it was found that he had never received notice of plaintiff's judgment nor of the Motion apparently filed preliminary to the granting of judgment.

4. The mail to Grant Orton's office is delivered to a mail box in front of the building where his office is located. During the months of January through May 1991, Grant Orton had numerous military assignments outside of the State of Utah, and during that time the mail has been retained on occasion by the Postal Service when his part-time secretary has not picked it up in a timely fashion.

5. In the past when this happened, it has been retained by the post office for it to be picked up there. Upon checking with the post office Grant Orton found that this was not the case since there is no such mail retained by the Postal Service.

6. Had Grant Orton become aware from any source that a Motion preliminary to the granting of judgment and sanctions had been served in any manner, including by mail, he would have taken the action necessary to timely prepare, file and serve an appropriate response thereto and he would not have permitted or suffered any judgment or sanctions to have been entered against the Defendant herein, without his answering said motions.

7. Defendants have, hold and claim valid and meritorious defenses to each of the claims and issues that are raised in and that are the subject of the Complaint and has asserted them in his Answer.

8. Defendants Transamerica Equities, Inc. nor Clare T. Morse did not receive notice of the Motion for Sanctions and Judgment.

9. Defendants did not receive Notice of Plaintiffs' Motions nor could they find those notices.

10. That Grant Orton was attorney for Defendant Clare T. Morse and Transamerica Equities, Inc. and all defenses for Transamerica Equities included Morse.

11. That Clare Morse did not receive notice of any of Plaintiff's notices.

12. Defendants Clare T. Morse and Transamerica Equities did not have notice of any of the lack of response and therefore were dependent upon their attorney to represent them in this matter.

13. That at the very most, this was caused by excusable neglect.

III. ARGUMENT

Rules 55(c) and 60(b), Utah R. Civ. P., provide for relief from the entry of defaults and default judgments "for good cause shown" and for "mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect". The applicable standard is stated as follows in Westinghouse Electric Supply Co. v. Paul W. Larsen Contractor, Inc., 544 P. 2d 876, 879 (Utah 1975)

It is indeed commendable to handle cases with dispatch and to move calendars with expedition in order to keep them up-to-date. But it is even more important to keep in mind that the very reason for the existence of courts is to afford disputants an opportunity to be heard and to do justice between them. In conformity with that principle, the courts generally tend to favor granting relief from default judgments where there is any reasonable excuse unless it will result in substantial prejudice or injustice to the adverse party.

The facts established by the record now before the Court clearly satisfy the requirements of Rule 55(c) and 60(b) and compel the granting of the relief sought by Defendant's Motion. The failure of Defendants to file and serve a timely and appropriate response to the Motions for Sanctions and Judgment brought by the Plaintiff was caused by problems both with the mail (Orton nor Morse received the notices), and with Grant Orton serving military duty during the war in Kuwait during January - May 1991. The failure was not the result of poor practices, carelessness, or lack of concern on the part of Defendants, but rather a problem with the mail in part caused by Defendant Orton being called up in the military during this period. Moreover, defendants have, hold and claim, and are fully prepared to assert, good and meritorious defenses to each of the claims and issues that are raised by and that are the subject of the Plaintiff's Complaint.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above Defendant's Motion should be granted.

KENDRICK BROTHERS CONSTRUCTION : OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO SET
COMPANY, INC., ASIDE SANCTIONS AND JUDGMENT

Plaintiff,

vs.

CLARE T. MORSE and
TRANSAMERICA EQUITIES, INC.,

Civil No.910900069CN

Defendants.

Judge Homer F. Wilkinson

I. INTRODUCTION

This Court properly responded to the defendants' long history of complete disregard for this case by striking defendants' answer and entering judgment against defendants. Now, over seven months after defendants abandoned this matter, they believe they have the right to start over again by setting aside the judgment which was properly entered.

II. STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS

A chronology of material facts in this case establishes an inexcusable pattern of total neglect:

1. On January 18, 1991, plaintiff's attorney sent a Request for Production of Documents to Grant G. Orton, the attorney for defendants. The mailing certificate indicates that the document was properly mailed to the address which Mr. Orton uses for his practice of law. The document was not returned by the post office.

2. On February 22, 1991, plaintiff's attorney sent Mr. Orton a letter reminding him that the time to answer the Request for Production of Documents had now passed and granting Mr. Orton an extension of time until March 1, 1991 to respond to the Request. Mr. Orton was duly advised that if he failed to respond on or before March 1, 1991, a motion to compel would be brought and sanctions would be requested. The letter was correctly mailed to Mr. Orton's business address and was not returned by the post office. A copy of the letter is attached as "Exhibit A" and incorporated herein by this reference.

3. On March 5, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed a Motion to Compel Production of Documents and asked the Court to award attorney's fees associated with bringing the motion because of defendants complete lack of response. This motion was also duly mailed to defendants' counsel and was not returned by the post office.

4. On April 1, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed with the Court and duly mailed to defendants' attorney a Notice to Submit for Decision. This document was also not returned by the post office.

5. On April 5, 1991, the Court granted plaintiff's motion and ordered defendants to respond to the Request for Production of Documents within fifteen (15) days of April 5, 1991. The Court held in reserve the issue of awarding attorney's fees. The Court's Minute Entry was duly mailed to defendants' attorney at the same address to which plaintiff's attorney had been sending correspondence.

6. On April 18, 1991, Mr. Orton telephoned plaintiff's counsel to apologize for neglecting the matter. Mr. Orton acknowledged that he received the Court's Minute Entry and the previous documents but had been too busy to get with Mr. Morse. Mr. Orton said that he told Mr. Morse about the Request for Production of Documents but he did not think Mr. Morse had done anything yet to assemble documents. Mr. Orton then requested additional time and plaintiff's attorney denied the request, reminding Mr. Orton that he already been given three months to respond. Finally, Mr. Orton said that he could not locate the Request for Production of Documents and asked if plaintiff's attorney would send him a new set. Plaintiff's attorney offered to fax the document to Mr. Orton so that he could have it immediately. As soon as the telephone conversation ended, plaintiff's counsel faxed the Request for Production of Documents to Mr. Orton. A copy of the fax transmittal sheet is attached hereto as "Exhibit B" and incorporated herein by this reference. A copy of the April client billing which further proves that Mr. Morse spoke directly with plaintiff's attorney and was denied any extension of time is attached hereto as "Exhibit C" and incorporated herein by this reference.

7. On April 23, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed a Motion to Strike Answer, Enter Default Judgment and Award Attorney's Fees because of defendants' failure to respond in any manner within the time period ordered by the Court. A copy of this motion was duly mailed to Mr. Orton and was not returned by the post office.

8. On May 7, 1991, plaintiff's attorney filed a Notice to Submit and duly mailed a copy to Mr. Orton. The mailing was not returned by the post office.

9. On May 21, 1991, the Court prepared a Minute Entry granting plaintiff's Motion to Strike Answer, Enter Default and Award Attorney's Fees. Once again, the Court properly sent a copy of the Minute Entry to Mr. Orton.

10. On May 30, 1991, plaintiff's attorney sent to Mr. Orton a copy of the proposed Order Striking Answer and Awarding Default Judgment and Attorney's Fees.

11. On June 3, 1991, the Court signed the proposed order.

12. On June 13, 1991, Clare Morse was personally served by a constable with two Motions and Orders in Supplemental Proceedings. One was served upon him in his capacity as the registered agent of Transamerica Equities, Inc., and the second was served upon him in his individual capacity. These motions fully explained on their face that judgment had been entered against both defendants in the amount of Fifty Thousand Two Hundred Thirty and No/100 Dollars ($50,230.00). Copies of these motions together with the constable's return of service affidavits are attached hereto as "Exhibit D" and "Exhibit E" and are incorporated herein by this reference.

13. Clare Morse did not show up at the hearing which was scheduled for June 30, 1991.

14. On July 10, 1991, Clare Morse was personally served by a constable for a second time with two Motions and Orders in Supplemental Proceedings. Copies of these two documents together with the constable's return of service affidavits are attached hereto as "Exhibit F" and "Exhibit G" and are incorporated herein by this reference.

15. Clare Morse did not show up at the hearing which was scheduled for July 23, 1991.

16. On August 6, 1991, Clare Morse was personally served by a constable for a third time with two Orders to Show Cause. Copies of these two documents together with the constable's return of service affidavits are attached hereto as "Exhibit H" and "Exhibit I" and are incorporated herein by this reference.

17. On August 12, 1991, one day before the Order to Show Cause hearing was scheduled, Clare Morse's new attorney, Wesley Sine, telephoned plaintiff's attorney and notified plaintiff's attorney that defendants had retained him to represent both defendants and that he would be filing a motion to Set Aside the Default Judgment.

18. On August 23, 1991, defendants' new attorney filed a Motion to Set Aside Sanctions and Judgment.

II. ARGUMENT

Defendants' Memorandum in Support of Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment correctly indicates that courts generally tend to favor granting relief from default judgments. But as the preceding statement of material facts makes clear, this case is anything but typical and the defendants' total and complete neglect of this matter was anything but excusable.

First, defendants' Memorandum states that Clare Morse and Transamerica Equities first learned that a judgment had been obtained against them on July 10, 1991 when Morse was served by a Motion and Order in Supplemental Proceedings. (See paragraph 2 of Memorandum). In Morse's Affidavit, Morse testifies that if he had been aware that a motion preliminary to the granting of judgment had been mailed, he would have taken any action to obtain new counsel and respond timely. Both of these statements are contradicted by the facts. As Exhibits D and E make clear, Morse knew a judgment had been entered against him and his company on June 13, 1991, almost one month before he admits this knowledge and two full months before he took any action to hire new counsel or do anything about the judgment. In fact, if it were not for the order to show cause hearing and the imminent issuance of a bench warrant for Morse's arrest, it is doubtful that any response would have taken place even to this date.

Second, defendants' memorandum states that defendants' attorney, Grant Orton, never received notice of plaintiff's judgment nor of the motion filed preliminary thereto (par. 3); that had Orton been aware of such a preliminary motion, he would have immediately responded (par. 6); that Orton was called up to serve with the military from January through May, 1991 (par. 4 and third and fourth lines from the bottom of page 4); and that Orton was having problems with his mail from January through May of 1991 (par. 4 and 5, and last 8 lines on page 4). These statements in the memorandum are further alleged in the Morse Affidavit which states that Orton was on military call from January to late May of 1991 (Morse Aff., par. 5) and the Orton Affidavit which states as follows: Orton never had notice of the judgment or motions filed preliminary thereto (Orton Aff., par. 3); Orton had mail problems from January through May of 1991 (Orton Aff., par 4-5); and Orton would have timely responded if he had been aware of motions preliminary to the judgment (Orton Aff., par. 6).

Once again, a review of the facts contradicts each representation made above. In the first place, even if Orton's incredible story about having mail problems for a five month period of time is somehow accepted as truthful, it does not explain the telephone conversation which plaintiff's attorney had with Orton on April 18, 1991. In that telephone conversation, Orton apologized for neglecting to respond to the discovery, acknowledged receipt of the Court's April 5, 1991 Minute Entry granting plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions and requested that plaintiff's counsel grant him more time and send again the Request for Production of Documents (Affidavit of Marlon L. Bates, par. 3-4). If the Court questions the Affidavit of Marlon L. Bates with respect to the telephone conversation, Exhibit B evidences a fax transmission on that date to Orton. It should be noted that Orton has never claimed that his fax machine was not working. Furthermore, Exhibit C evidences that in the ordinary course of billing for this case, plaintiff's attorney described a telephone conversation with Orton on April 18, 1991 in which plaintiff's attorney denies Orton's request for more time. Exhibits B and C were prepared in April of 1991, well before the issues raised by defendants' motion came to light. Consequently, the validity of Exhibit B and C is much more certain than the validity of affidavits which were prepared in anticipation of this motion. Exhibits B and C establish that Orton was not completely removed from his practice of law from January through May of 1991 as defendants' memorandum and affidavits suggest; rather, in the middle of that period, Orton is documented as having a telephone conversation with plaintiff's attorney regarding the issues of the case and knew enough about the time frame imposed by the Court to request an extension of time. If Orton were placed under oath to testify regarding his practice from February through May of 1991, it is likely that Orton spent a substantial amount of time practicing law.

If the facts of Orton's military service were to show that after his April 18, 1991 conversation with plaintiff's attorney, Orton became too busy to practice law, Orton has a duty to inform his client of this fact and withdraw as counsel. Orton did not do this. This flagrant neglect of a legal matter entrusted to Orton is certainly not excusable within the meaning of the Rules of Civil Procedure. If defendants honestly believe this neglect injured their case, their remedy is to sue their attorney for malpractice. The defendants picked their attorney and the defendants -- not the plaintiff -- should bear the burden of their choice. It is interesting to note, however, that notwithstanding Orton's total neglect of the case, defendants have not fired him. Instead, they have hired new counsel to work with Orton.

In addition to Orton's responsibility for the legal matters entrusted to him, Orton also bears the burden of solving any problems his legal practice has with the delivery of his mail. From January through May of 1991, Orton was sent at least nine different packages of documents from plaintiff and the court. Orton claims none of these were received by him. Certainly a mail problem of this magnitude (if the Court believes this story) should become apparent to any reasonable person and should be solved in short order. Orton's failure to do this is not excusable neglect and plaintiff should not be forced to bear the burden of Orton's failure to solve his alleged mail problem.

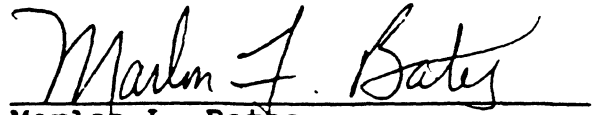

IV. CONCLUSION

Although Courts should generally grant motions to set aside default judgments, this is one case where it should not be granted. The volume of work, time, and considerable expense involved in bringing this particular case to judgment and attempting to collect on that judgment takes it out of the ordinary scope of default judgments. While the plaintiff spent thousands of dollars jumping through a wide assortment of legal hoops and while the Court patiently granted defendants every opportunity to respond, defendants' attorney knowingly neglected the case. And while the plaintiff spent additional sums attempting to collect on the judgment, the defendants totally refused for two months to respond to the Court's orders to attend hearings in Supplemental Proceedings or take any action to set aside the judgment. It is incredible that at this point, defendants are asking the Court to pretend the last seven months never happened. To grant this motion is to render totally ineffective the discovery process and to penalize plaintiff for diligently pursuing its remedies in good faith.

For these reasons, plaintiff respectfully requests that defendants' motion be denied.

Dear Mr. Orton:

My records indicate that our Request for Production of Documents was mailed to you on January 18, 1991. Consequently, I believe the 30 days allowed by the Rules of Civil Procedure have expired. I will grant a one week extension of time to produce these documents but if I do not receive the documents on or before Friday, March 1, 1991, I will bring a motion to compel their production and will request sanctions.

Sincerely,

1. I am over eighteen (18) years of age and am a

2. I am duly licensed to practice law in the state of Utah and am the attorney for the plaintiff in the above-captioned matter.

3. On April 18, 1991, I received a telephone call from Mr. Grant Orton, the attorney for defendants.

4. In the above described telephone conversation, Mr. Orton apologized for neglecting to respond to the discovery and acknowledged to me that he received the court's minute entry granting plaintiff's motion to compel production of documents but had been too busy to get with his client, Mr. Morse. Mr. Orton said that he had told Mr. Morse about the request for production of documents but he did not think Mr. Morse had done anything yet to assemble the requested documents. Mr. Orton acknowledged that he only had two more days to respond to the court order and then requested additional time. I denied the request, reminding Mr. Orton that he had already been given three months to respond. Mr. Orton then said he could not locate the request for production of documents and asked if I would send him a new copy. I told him that I would fax him a new copy so that he could have it immediately and Mr. Orton gave me his fax number.

5. As soon as the above-described telephone conversation ended, I faxed to Mr. Orton a copy of the request for production of documents.

6. The fax transmittal described above is evidenced by a transmittal sheet, a copy of which is attached to the opposition to plaintiff's motion as "Exhibit B."

7. The telephone conference referenced above is evidenced by the April client billing record, a copy of which is attached to the opposition to plaintiff's motion as "Exhibit C."

I. INTRODUCTION

From January of 1991 to the end of May of 1991, Grant Orton (attorney for Defendants Transamerica Equities, Inc., and Clare T. Morse), served as an Army Reserve Battalion Commander of the 141'st M.I. Battalion. During that period of time, part of his unit was called up, necessitating Grant Orton's efforts to follow through on their call up. During part of that period Grant Orton was out of the state on military call up and during part of that time was at the local headquarters for the 141'st military intelligence battalion. On his part it was not a full time call up but it did take him away from his practice of law for a considerable amount of the time.

This Judgment was taken during that period of time. Defendants claim that but for this national emergency and a subsequent problem with their attorney's mail collection, this Judgment would not have happened.

Section 60 (b)(1) of U.C.A. allows for a setting aside of a judgment if within three months of the Judgment on a basis of excusable neglect. The Judgment was taken on June 3, 1991 and a Motion to Set Aside was filed on August 23, 1991. This falls within those parameters, since the Motion was taken well within the three month allowance.

II. STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS

1. Grant Orton in his Affidavit of August 23, 1991 stated in paragraph number 4 that "During the months of January through May 1991, I have had numerous military assignments outside of the state of Utah".

2. Grant Orton further states that while he was away, "the mail has been retained on occasion by the postal service when his part time secretary did not pick it up in a timely fashion".

3. Grant Orton further states that there was not mail retained for him at the post office.

4. Grant Orton also states in his Affidavit that "he had never received notice of Plaintiff's Judgment nor of the motions filed preliminary to the granting of the Judgment".

5. Answers to interrogatories were filed with the Plaintiffs.

6. On April 18, 1991, under Plaintiff's Statement of Facts (par. 6), Plaintiff's attorney claims he spoke with Grant Orton but further on down states that Plaintiff's attorney spoke with Mr. Morse; but this must be a mistake as there is no evidence that he spoke with Mr. Morse, only Grant Orton.

7. Clare T. Morse was not the registered agent of Transamerica Equities or its President at the time of service of the Supplemental Hearing Motion and Order (see exhibit A).

III. ARGUMENT

The period of time, within which Plaintiff complains of "an inexcusable pattern of total neglect", falls during the crisis in the Gulf War. Grant Orton is a citizen soldier serving as the Commander of the 141'st Military Battalion for the Army Reserve. While his whole unit was not called up during the War, approximately half of it was called to active duty necessitating his call up for periods of time to effect their call up and later their reactivation after the peace was won. This all happened during the period of time complained of and caused the problems complained of by the Plaintiff. Most of the items complained of can be explained not upon willfull denial of the law, but because of the particular situation that attorney Orton found himself in, plus a lack of communication caused by a problem with the mail which was not timely discovered due to the military obligations of attorney

Orton. So far as Clare T. Morse not answering the Supplemental Hearings timely, these items were also turned over to Grant Orton who was to apply for a setting aside of the judgment, but again because of military obligations it was not handled.

Defendant's attorney tried to cover all bases, i.e., serving his country and protecting his clients. Unfortunately, this particular Plaintiff was not concerned with its country's problems but only in expediting an unconscionable lawsuit and took advantage of Mr. Orton's military obligations. Mr. Orton had arranged for his mail to be held for him but during the period of April, May, and June something happened that prevented the mail from reaching Mr. Orton. Therefore this Judgment was taken without the Defendants knowing of it until being served for a Supplemental Hearing.

Once again the Defendants turned to their trusted legal counsel to straighten out the Default Judgment problem but the military was still calling and Lieutenant Colonel Orton was now striving to deactivate his people once again pulling him away from his legal responsibilities. This is why the present counsel was hired to represent the plaintiffs until Grant Orton could committ enough time to represent them properly.

Mr. Orton could not solve his mail problem until he was aware of the problem, by the time he was aware of the problem, the damage had been done. Problems with mail is not an unheard of event. Coupled with his partial military call up created the problem we have here.

IV. CONCLUSION

This case cries out for justice. Rule 60(b)(1) is written for this type of problem. A war, a lawyer who is a citizen soldier, a mix up with the mail all added together have caused damage to Defendants by a default judgment having been given to the Plaintiffs upon a complaint which was defensible by Defendants. Plaintiffs will not be hurt if this is set aside so that Defendants may have their day in court; but justice will be served.

All of us should feel a debt of gratitude for citizen soldiers like Grant Orton and we should not penalize the Defendants because the lawyer they chose was dedicated to serving his country and failed to adequately represent them because of a mix up in the mail and the military pressures of the moment. Certainly a once in a life time problem should not be left uncorrected.

For these reasons Defendants respectfully request their Motion be allowed and the Judgment sent aside.

DATED this 23rd day of September, 1991.

WESLEY F. SINE

2 IN OPEN COURT:)
3 THE COURT: KENDRICK BROTHERS CONSTRUCTION
4 VERSUS MORSE. WE'LL COME BACK TO THAT.
5 (WHEREUPON, FURTHER PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD ON 6 CALENDAR UNRELATED TO THE INSTANT CASE; AFTER 7 WHICH, THE FOLLOWING PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN 8 OPEN COURT:)
9 THE COURT: KENDRICK BROTHER CONSTRUCTION
10 VERSUS CLARE T. MORSE AND TRANSAMERICA EQUITIES, INC.
11 MR. SINE: WES SINE APPEARING FOR THE
12 DEFENDANTS.
13 MR. BATES: MARLON BATES ON BEHALF OF THE
14 PLAINTIFF.
15 THE COURT: HOW MUCH TIME DO YOU NEED, COUNSEL?
16 MR. SINE: PROBABLY JUST TEN MINUTES, YOUR
17 HONOR.
18 THE COURT: YOU MAY PROCEED. AND I'VE READ THE 19 PLEADINGS, SO I KNOW ALL ABOUT WHAT'S GOING ON. SO DON'T 20 SPEND A LOT OF TIME JUST REHASHING IT, BUT GO AHEAD.
21 MR. SINE: THIS IS AN ACTION BROUGHT AGAINST MY 22 CLIENT ON APPROXIMATELY THE 4TH OF JANUARY OF 1991. THE 23 ANSWER WAS FILED BY--.
24 THE COURT: I'VE READ ALL THAT.
25 MR. SINE: DURING THAT SAME PERIOD OF TIME,

1 GRANT ORTON WAS IN THE 141ST MILITARY INTELLIGENCE GROUP FOR 2 THE NATIONAL GUARD AND WAS OUT OF STATE MUCH OF THAT TIME ON 3 MILITARY SERVICE.

4 DURING THAT PERIOD OF TIME, A MOTION WAS FILED
5 FOR SANCTIONS AND TO SET ASIDE--AND ALSO FOR A DEFAULT
6 JUDGMENT BASED UPON THAT. ACCORDING TO MR. ORTON'S AFFIDAVIT,
7 HE DID NOT RECEIVE THAT MOTION FOR SANCTIONS.

8 THE COURT: LET ME INTERRUPT YOU RIGHT THERE.
9 NOW I READ THESE THINGS. I READ THE AFFIDAVIT AND THE 10 STATEMENT BY THE PLAINTIFF AS FAR AS HIM CALLING MR. ORTON ON 11 THE PHONE AND TALKING TO HIM AND REFUSING TO CONTINUE THIS AND 12 FAXING A COPY OF THE--I GUESS THE INTERROGATORIES, MAKING
13 NOTATIONS AS FAR AS THE TIME ON THE CALENDAR. MR. ORTON
14 DOESN'T DENY THAT.

15 MR. SINE: HE DOESN'T DENY IT IN HIS AFFIDAVIT
16 BECAUSE OF THE TIME THAT THAT STATEMENT WAS MAILED, MR. ORTON
17 DIDN'T KNOW THAT STATEMENT WAS TO BE MADE.

18 I TALKED TO MR. ORTON AFTERWARDS AND HE SAID HE
19 DIDN'T RECEIVE A FAX, WASN'T SURE HE HAD TALKED TO MR. BATES
20 ABOUT IT.

21 DURING THIS PERIOD OF TIME, HE WAS TRYING TO BE 22 A MILITARY MAN, AND I THINK--.

23 THE COURT: DON'T GO INTO THAT. I APPRECIATE
24 THE FACT THAT HE MAY HAVE BEEN IN THE MILITARY, BUT I WANT TO 25 KNOW WHETHER THAT TOOK PLACE OR DIDN'T.

1 MR. SINE: THE FAX NEVER GOT TO MR. ORTON.

2 THE COURT: HE DID TALK TO MR. ORTON ON THE 3 PHONE AND MR. ORTON KNEW OF WHAT WAS TAKING PLACE?

4 MR. SINE: THAT'S CORRECT.

5 THE COURT: AND I'M CURIOUS, COUNSEL, WHY, WHEN
6 YOUR CLIENT WAS SERVED I BELIEVED IT WAS IN JUNE, SERVED TWICE
7 WITH A SUPP ORDER, HE DIDN'T RESPOND TO EITHER ONE OF THEM,
8 AND THEN FINALLY CAME IN I GUESS IT WAS ON AN ORDER TO SHOW
9 CAUSE OR A GARNISHMENT.

10 MR. SINE: MY CLIENT SAYS THAT THE FIRST
11 SERVICE WAS NOT SERVED UPON HIM BUT WAS LEFT WITH ONE OF HIS 12 CHILDREN, AND HE DID NOT RECEIVE IT. HE DID NOT--HE DID
13 RECEIVE A SECOND ONE, GAVE IT TO MR. ORTON TO TAKE CARE OF; IN 14 OTHER WORDS, HE BROUGHT IT TO MR. ORTON. THE FACT THAT THIS 15 DEFAULT JUDGMENT HAD BEEN ENTERED, MR. ORTON WAS SUPPOSED TO 16 TAKE CARE OF IT AND DID NOT, AND FINALLY MR. ORTON BROUGHT THE 17 FILE TO ME EARLY IN AUGUST WHEN HE HAD TO GO OUT OF TOWN AGAIN
18 ON MILITARY DUTY FOR ME TO FILE A MOTION TO SET IT ASIDE.

19 DURING THAT PERIOD OF TIME, YOUR HONOR, I HAD 20 TRIED TO CALL MR. ORTON ON OTHER BUSINESS AND HAD A VERY 21 DIFFICULT TIME GETTING HOLD OF HIM, IF EVER, BECAUSE OF NOT 22 BEING IN THE CITY. I CALLED HIS HOME AND WOULD HEAR FROM HIS 23 WIFE THAT HE WAS STILL OUT ON MILITARY CALL.

24 I DID NOT GET INVOLVED IN THIS PARTICULAR
25 ACTION UNTIL AUGUST FIRST, BUT THAT WAS WITHIN THE 90 DAY

1 PERIOD THAT THE COURT ALLOWS.

2 IT WOULD BE A GREAT INJUSTICE, IT SEEMS TO ME,
3 TO LET THAT JUDGMENT STAND WHERE TRANSAMERICA EQUITIES FEELS
4 THEY'RE NOT INITIALLY UNDER THE COMPLAINT.

5 THE COURT: OF COURSE I'M INCLINED TO GRANT
6 YOUR MOTION, BUT FOR THE FACT THAT--WHAT I SHOULD SAY IS 7 BECAUSE OF THE FACT THAT WHAT YOU SAY ABOUT MR. ORTON, AND I
8 DON'T WANT TO PENALIZE YOUR CLIENT BECAUSE OF HIS ACTIONS, BUT 9 I'M NOT INCLINED TO GRANT IT BECAUSE OF HIS--BECAUSE OF YOUR 10 CLIENT RECEIVING TWO SUPP ORDERS AND DOING NOTHING ABOUT THEM.

11 MR. SINE: THE FIRST SUPP ORDER HE CLAIMS HE 12 NEVER RECEIVED. THE SECOND SUPP ORDER, HE GAVE IT TO 13 MR. ORTON TO TAKE CARE OF, AND MR. ORTON DIDN'T TAKE CARE OF 14 IT, AND AFTER THAT HE CONTACTED ME AND HAD ME--ASKED ME TO 15 TAKE CARE OF IT BECAUSE IT WASN'T GETTING DONE.

16 THE COURT: THAT DOESN'T WASH WITH ME WHEN HE 17 KNOWS THAT SOME MISTAKE HAS BEEN MADE ALREADY AND A JUDGMENT
18 HAS BEEN TAKEN AGAINST HIM AND HE'S ORDERED INTO THE COURT.

19 MR. SINE: IT SEEMS TO ME HE TOOK THE PROPER
20 PROCEDURE WHEN HE RECEIVED THE SECOND ONE, HE TOOK IT TO HIS 21 ATTORNEY AND SAID, "WHAT IS HAPPENING? WHY DO I HAVE A 22 DEFAULT JUDGMENT"?

23 AND THE ATTORNEY SAID, "I'LL GET IT SET ASIDE."
24 AND HE DIDN'T RECEIVE ANY OF THE MOTIONS BECAUSE OF THAT 25 PARTICULAR PROBLEM.

1 AND THEN HE SUPPOSEDLY WAS SUPPOSED TO TAKE
2 CARE OF IT AND DIDN'T. AND THAT'S WHEN I GOT BROUGHT INTO IT,
3 WHEN THE THIRD SITUATION AROSE.

4 THE COURT: WHY DIDN'T HE SHOW UP ON THE 23RD
5 ON THE SECOND SUPP ORDER?

6 MR. SINE: I BELIEVE THE SECOND SUPP ORDER WAS 7 THE ONE HE GAVE TO MR. ORTON TO TAKE CARE OF. THE FIRST HE 8 CLAIMS HE NEVER RECEIVED. THERE WAS AN ATTEMPTED SERVICE ON 9 HIS DAUGHTER; IF YOU LOOK AT THE SERVICE NOTATION, IT SAYS "TO 10 A PERSON," AND ON THE AFFIDAVIT IT SAYS THE NAME OF "CLARE T.
11 MORSE," BUT HE SAYS HIS DAUGHTER NEVER GAVE IT TO HIM.

12 THE COURT: ANYTHING ELSE?

13 MR. SINE: THAT'S ALL I WOULD HAVE, YOUR HONOR.

14 MR. BATES: YOUR HONOR, I THINK WE CAN SHORTEN
15 THIS A GREAT DEAL. WITH REGARD TO ACTION TAKEN BY THE 16 DEFENDANTS, AFTER THE JUDGMENT WAS ALREADY ENTERED BY THIS
17 COURT, ON THREE SEPARATE OCCASIONS THE DEFENDANT, IN BOTH
18 INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND AS THIS CORPORATION, WAS PERSONALLY
19 SERVED BY A CONSTABLE. THERE IS AN AFFIDAVIT IN THE FILE THAT 20 REFLECTS THAT, AND IT WAS BY A CONSTABLE WHO HAS NO REASON TO 21 LIE, BUT WHO SAYS HE'S SERVING HIM ON THE FIRST TIME, HE WAS
22 SERVED--.

23 THE COURT: WHAT DOES THE RETURN SAY ON THE 24 FIRST SUPP ORDER?

25 MR. BATES: IT SAYS THAT CLARE MORSE WAS

1 PERSONALLY SERVED WITH IT, YOUR HONOR.

2 THE COURT: THAT IT WAS LEFT WITH--.

3 MR. BATES: LEFT WITH HIM PERSONALLY. THE
4 SECOND ONE, THE EXACT SAME THING HAPPENED, YOUR HONOR. CLARE
5 MORSE WAS SERVED PERSONALLY WITH THAT SUPP ORDER. HE DIDN'T
6 APPEAR AT THE HEARING, YOUR HONOR. HE WAS SERVED A THIRD TIME
7 WITH AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

8 IT WAS ONLY THE DAY BEFORE THE HEARING ON THAT
9 ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE THAT WE RECEIVED, IN OUR OFFICE, A CALL
10 FROM NEW COUNSEL SAYING, "WAIT A MINUTE," SEVEN AND A HALF
11 MONTHS AFTER THIS THING STARTED, SEVEN AND A HALF MONTHS AFTER 12 I BEAT MY HEAD BLOODY AGAINST A WALL AND INCURRED 13.7 HOURS
13 AND $1,691.70 SPECIFICALLY RELATED TO GETTING THESE FOLKS TO 14 COMPLY WITH THIS DISCOVERY.

15 THIS COURT APPROPRIATELY HELD THAT JUDGMENT
16 SHOULD BE ENTERED. THAT JUDGMENT SHOULD NOT BE SET ASIDE NOW.
17 THE CLIENT DOES HAVE A REMEDY, YOUR HONOR. THE CLIENT CAN SUE
18 HIS COUNSEL FOR MALPRACTICE.

19 THE COURT: DON'T TELL ME THAT, COUNSEL. I
20 DON'T WANT TO HEAR ANYTHING ABOUT THAT.

21 MR. BATES: THAT'S THE REMEDY THE CLIENT HAS.
22 WE PROCEEDED FORTH IN GOOD FAITH. THIS DIDN'T HAPPEN QUICKLY.
23 FOR MR. ORTON TO HIDE BEHIND HIS MAILBOX OR TO HIDE BEHIND THE 24 AMERICAN FLAG IN THIS CASE I THINK IS REPREHENSIBLE.

25 THE FACT THAT HE WOULD HAVE TO CLAIM THAT ON

1 NINE SEPARATE OCCASIONS HE DIDN'T RECEIVE ANY OF THE MAILINGS
2 THAT WERE SENT OUT BY ME OR THIS COURT, OVER A FOUR AND A HALF
3 MONTH PERIOD OF TIME, IF THAT INCREDIBLE AN AMOUNT OF MAIL
4 PROBLEM WAS GOING ON, THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN BROUGHT TO 5 MR. ORTON'S ATTENTION AND IT WASN'T.

6 IF MR. ORTON COULDN'T PRACTICE LAW, HE SHOULD 7 HAVE DONE WHAT ALL ATTORNEYS ARE REQUIRED TO DO, AND THAT'S 8 WITHDRAW HIS REPRESENTATION, AND HE DID NOT DO THAT, YOUR
9 HONOR.

10 BRUCE READING OF OUR OFFICE WAS PERSONALLY
11 INVOLVED AS A SENIOR STAFF OFFICER FOR THE NATIONAL GUARD, AND 12 PERSONALLY WAS INVOLVED IN ACTIVATING 2,000 TROOPS AND CARRIED
13 ON AN ACTIVE PRACTICE AT THE SAME TIME.

14 THE COURT: COUNSEL, THAT'S NOT APPROPRIATE.

15 MR. BATES: SO ALL OF THE ARGUMENTS THAT ARE 16 RAISED, THAT HE'S EITHER HIDING BEHIND HIS MAILBOX OR BEHIND
17 THE FLAG, DON'T WASH. I SPOKE WITH MR. ORTON ON APRIL 18TH, 18 AS I HAVE SWORN UNDER OATH BY AFFIDAVIT. IF THERE WAS--IF
19 MR. ORTON HAD DARED REPRESENT TO THIS COURT THAT SOME ACCIDENT
20 HAD HAPPENED, HE COULD HAVE SUBMITTED AN AFFIDAVIT. THERE'S 21 BEEN PLENTY OF TIME TO DO SO AND HE HAS NOT DONE SO.

22 THE COURT: WHO WAS THE SECOND SUPP ORDER
23 SERVED ON?

24 MR. BATES: ALSO CLARE MORSE PERSONALLY.

25 THE COURT: AND THE THIRD WAS THE ORDER TO SHOW

1 CAUSE?

2 MR. BATES: YES, YOUR HONOR.

3 THE COURT: THAT WAS SERVED ON HIM ALSO?

4 MR. BATES: YES, YOUR HONOR.

5 THE COURT: COUNSEL?

6 MR. SINE: YOUR HONOR, UNDER EXHIBIT D WHICH IS
7 THE FIRST ONE THAT WAS SERVED, IT DOESN'T SAY IT WAS SERVED ON 8 CLARE MORSE, IT SAYS IT WAS SERVED UPON A PERSON.

9 THE COURT: LOOK AT THE AFFIDAVIT THAT'S BEHIND
10 IT. IT SAYS THAT IT WAS SERVED UPON CLARE MORSE.

11 MR. SINE: BUT ON THE FRONT OF THE DOCUMENT HE 12 GAVE ME IT JUST SAYS "ON A PERSON." MR. MORSE SAYS HE NEVER 13 RECEIVED IT, THAT IT WAS GIVEN TO HIS DAUGHTER.

14 THE COURT: OF COURSE THE AFFIDAVIT IS THE 15 CONTROLLING DOCUMENT AS FAR AS THE COURT IS CONCERNED. THAT 16 HAS TO BE ON THERE AS FAR AS THE STATUTE TO SHOW IT WAS 17 SERVED.

18 MR. SINE: BUT THE AFFIDAVIT DOES NOT SHOW THE 19 SERVICE ON HIM PERSONALLY, YOUR HONOR. THEY ANSWERED THE 20 COMPLAINT, AND MY UNDERSTANDING IS THEY ANSWERED THE 21 INTERROGATORIES; THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS WAS THE HANG-UP
22 AREA AND THEY DIDN'T GET ANSWERED.

23 BUT WE BROUGHT THIS ACTION WITHIN THE THREE
24 -MONTH PERIOD WHICH THE CODE ALLOWS FOR IT, AND IT WOULD SEEM
25 TO ME THAT IT WAS TIMELY.

1 THE COURT: LET ME INDICATE TO YOU THAT FIRST
2 OF ALL I WOULD SAY I HATE THESE DEALS WHERE WE GET INVOLVED AS
3 FAR AS THIS TYPE OF SITUATION IS CONCERNED, AND I DON'T LIKE
4 THEM, BUT WE HAVE TO FACE THEM.

5 I WOULD BE GRANTING THIS WITHOUT HESITATION IF
6 YOUR ARGUMENT WAS COMING BEFORE THIS COURT AND THAT COUNSEL
7 WAS INVOLVED IN THE MILITARY AND SOME MISTAKE HAD BEEN MADE
8 AND HE DIDN'T GET THE JOB DONE. I WOULD BE GRANTING IT. I
9 THINK THAT'S EXACTLY THE SITUATION AS FAR AS THE STATUTE.

10 AND WE ALL FIND OURSELVES IN THOSE SITUATIONS;
11 IF YOU HAVEN'T, YOU WILL AS FAR AS THE PRACTICE OF LAW IS 12 CONCERNED.

13 BUT I CAN SEE NO REASON WHEN THE DEFENDANT
14 HIMSELF IS SERVED PERSONALLY IN JUNE, JULY AND AGAIN IN 15 AUGUST, AND NOTHING IS DONE ON THIS UNTIL AUGUST THE 12TH, 16 THAT I COULD--I DON'T BUY THIS THAT IT WAS SERVED ON HIS
17 DAUGHTER AND HE LOST IT. I CAN BUY THAT THE PERSON TOOK IT TO 18 AN ATTORNEY AND THE ATTORNEY DIDN'T HEAR OF IT. HE DIDN'T GET 19 THE SECOND ONE, I CAN BUY THAT. OF COURSE THE THIRD ONE, HE 20 CAME TO YOU, AND EVEN JUST BEFORE THE HEARING HE CAME IN AND 21 MOVES FOR IT, AND I HAVE NO FAULT WITH WHAT YOU HAVE DONE.

22 BUT I WOULD STATE THAT ALSO, IF I WERE TO 23 GRANT--SET THIS ASIDE, I WOULD BE ORDERING FULL PAYMENT OF 24 ATTORNEYS FEES.

25 MR. SINE: I THINK THAT WOULD BE APPROPRIATE.

1 THE COURT: BASED ON THE ACTIONS OF THE
2 DEFENDANT, THE DEFENDANT THEMSELVES, WHAT THEY DID AS FAR AS
3 THE NOTICE TO THEM ABOUT THE SUPP ORDERS, I WOULD DENY THE 4 MOTION TO SET IT ASIDE.

5 MR. SINE: COULD I MAKE ONE STATEMENT? I WAS
6 THE REGISTERED AGENT FOR THE CORPORATION. I WAS NEVER SERVED
7 WITH ANY OF THESE. IF MR. MORSE--.

8 THE COURT: COUNSEL, NO, THAT IS NOT--IF YOU
9 HAVE A POINT THERE TO ARGUE, THEN YOU HAVE TO GIVE THEM NOTICE
10 OF IT. I DON'T KNOW IF THEY GOT PROPER SERVICE OR NOT.

11 MR. SINE: IT'S PART OF THE ARGUMENT I GAVE TO 12 YOU, YOUR HONOR.

13 THE COURT: ABOUT PROPER SERVICE?

14 MR. SINE: WELL, PART OF--THE CORPORATION IS A
15 PART OF THE REPLY MEMORANDUM. THERE'S A DOCUMENT, AN EXHIBIT,
16 WITHIN THE REPLY MEMORANDUM WHICH SHOWS WHO THE REGISTERED
17 AGENT IS FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS UPON THE CORPORATION.

18 THE COURT: WELL, I'M NOT GOING TO PROCEED ON 19 THAT HERE. YOU WOULD HAVE TO RAISE THAT AND NOT JUST IN YOUR 20 REPLY MEMORANDUM. IF YOU'RE GOING TO RAISE THAT, YOU HAVE TO 21 GIVE THEM AN OPPORTUNITY TO RESPOND. THAT'S UP TO YOU.

22 MR. SINE: CAN THAT BE RAISED AT THIS POINT,
23 YOUR HONOR?

24 THE COURT: I'M NOT SAYING ANYTHING ELSE--WELL,
25 NOT RIGHT NOW.

MR. BATES: I'LL PREPARE THEM, YOUR HONOR.

MR. BATES: YES, YOUR HONOR.
