Exhibit 1

78-45-7.3. Procedure — Documentation — Stipulation.

- (1) In a default or uncontested proceeding, the moving party shall submit:
 - (a) a completed child support worksheet;
 - (b) the financial verification required by Subsection 78-45-7.5(5); and
 - (c) a written statement indicating whether or not the amount of child support requested is consistent with the guidelines.
- (2) (a) If the documentation of income required under Subsection (1) is not available, a verified representation of the defaulting party's income by the moving party, based on the best evidence available, may be submitted.
 - (b) The evidence shall be in affidavit form and may only be offered after a copy has been provided to the defaulting party in accordance with Utah Rules of Civil Procedure or Title 63, Chapter 46b, the Administrative Procedures Act, in an administrative proceeding.
- (3) (a) In a stipulated proceeding, one of the moving parties shall submit:
 - (i) a completed child support worksheet;
 - (ii) the financial verification required by Subsection 78-45-7.5(5); and
 - (iii) a written statement indicating whether or not the amount of child support requested is consistent with the guidelines.
 - (b) A hearing is not required, but the guidelines shall be used to review the adequacy of a child support order negotiated by the parents.
 - (c) A stipulated amount for child support or combined child support and alimony is adequate under the guidelines if the stipulated child support amount or combined amount exceeds the total child support award required by the guidelines. When the stipulated amount exceeds the guidelines, it may be awarded without a finding under Section 78-45-7.2.

History: C. 1953, 78-45-7.3, enacted by L. 1989, ch. 214, § 5; 1990, ch. 100, § 4.

Amendment Notes. — The 1990 amendment, effective April 23, 1990, in Subsection (1)(c) substituted "a written statement" for "an affidavit" and made stylistic changes; added the language beginning "or Chapter 46b" to Subsection (2)(b); and, in Subsection (3), divided former Subsection (a) to form present Subsections (a) and (b), rewrote Subsection (a), which had read "If a stipulation is submitted as a basis for establishing or modifying child support, each parent shall present financial verification required by Subsection 78-45-7.5(4) and an affidavit fully disclosing the financial status of each parent, as required for use of the guidelines," and redesignated former Subsection (b) as Subsection (c).

Effective Dates. — Laws 1989, ch. 214 became effective on April 24, 1989, pursuant to Utah Const., Art. VI, Sec. 25.

Rule 4-504. Written orders, judgments and decrees.Intent:

To establish a uniform procedure for submitting written orders, judgments, and decrees to the court. This rule is not intended to change existing law with respect to the enforceability of unwritten agreements.

Applicability:

This rule shall apply to all civil proceedings in courts of record except small claims.

Statement of the Rule:

(1) In all rulings by a court, counsel for the party or parties obtaining the ruling shall within fifteen days, or within a shorter time as the court may direct, file with the court a proposed order, judgment, or decree in conformity with the ruling.

(2) Copies of the proposed findings, judgments, and orders shall be served upon opposing counsel before being presented to the court for signature unless the court otherwise orders. Notice of objections shall be submitted to the court and counsel within five days after service.

(3) Stipulated settlements and dismissals shall also be reduced to writing and presented to the court for signature within fifteen days of the settlement and dismissal.

(4) Upon entry of judgment, notice of such judgment shall be served upon the opposing party and proof of such service shall be filed with the court. All judgments, orders, and decrees, or copies thereof, which are to be transmitted after signature by the judge, including other correspondence requiring a reply, must be accompanied by pre-addressed envelopes and pre-paid postage.

(5) All orders, judgments, and decrees shall be prepared in such a manner as to show whether they are entered upon the stipulation of counsel, the motion of counsel or upon the court's own initiative and shall identify the attorneys of record in the cause or proceeding in which the judgment, order or decree is made.

(6) Except where otherwise ordered, all judgments and decrees shall contain the address or the last known address of the judgment debtor and the social security number of the judgment debtor if known.

(7) All judgments and decrees shall be prepared as separate documents and shall not include any matters by reference unless otherwise directed by the court. Orders not constituting judgments or decrees may be made a part of the documents containing the stipulation or motion upon which the order is based.

(8) No orders, judgments, or decrees based upon stipulation shall be signed or entered unless the stipulation is in writing, signed by the attorneys of record for the respective parties and filed with the clerk or the stipulation was made on the record.

(9) In all cases where judgment is rendered upon a written obligation to pay money and a judgment has previously been rendered upon the same written obligation, the plaintiff or plaintiff's counsel shall attach to the new complaint a copy of all previous judgments based upon the same written obligation.

(10) Nothing in this rule shall be construed to limit the power of any court, upon a proper showing, to enforce a settlement agreement or any other agreement which has not been reduced to writing.
(Amended effective January 15, 1990; April 15, 1991.)

Amendment Notes. — The 1990 amendment inserted “civil proceedings in” and “except small claims” under “Applicability” and made minor stylistic changes in the Statement of the Rule.

The 1991 amendment added the final sentence to the Intent paragraph, deleted “and not of record” following “courts of record” in the Applicability paragraph, and added Subdivision (10).

Exhibit 2

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CHILD SUPPORT WORKSHEET

Line 1: Enter the number of natural and adopted children in this case. Do not include step children or present children from another partner on this line.

Line 2a: Definition of gross monthly income - prospective income from any source, salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, gifts, prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous marriages, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation, disability insurance benefits and payments for "non-means-tested" government programs. Income from earned sources is limited to the equivalent of one full time job. For self employed parents, see Utah Code, 78-15-7.5 (4) (a) and (b).

Excluded from gross income are: Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), benefits from: the housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, S.S.I., Medicaid, Food Stamps, General Assistance, and other "means-tested" benefits received by parent; earnings or benefits of a child who is subject to this award.

All income must be verified. Verification includes: year to date pay stubs, employer statements or records, the last year's tax return and documentation of non-earned income appropriate to the source.

Line 2d: Natural or adoptive children of either parent who live in the home of that parent and are not children in common to both parties, may at the option of either party be taken into account under the guidelines in setting or modifying a child support award. Use the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE FATHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HIS PRESENT HOME and/or the WORKSHEET TO DETERMINE MOTHER'S OBLIGATION TO CHILDREN IN HER PRESENT HOME to compute the obligations of the respective parents for the additional children. Consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to lessen an increase in the award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

Line 8: Enter the amount of work-related, reasonable, child care expenses for up to a full-time work week or training schedule. There is no need to include child care expenses in the order is presumed if the custodial parent is working and actually incurring the expenses. Child care expenses may be awarded on a case by case basis if the expenses are related to the career or occupational training of the custodial parent.

Line 9: The Base Child Support Award is the amount the obligor must pay each month. (Line 10, below, will show how much of amount the obligor pays to the obligee if the obligor is maintaining health insurance for the children.)

Line 10: The "Base Combined Child Support Obligation Table" includes a standard amount for monthly medical and dental insurance premium payments. Therefore, premiums paid by the obligor should be subtracted from the Base Child Support Award. The obligor then pays the adjusted child support award in Line 9 to the obligee. If the obligor is not maintaining health insurance for the child, the amounts in Lines 9 and 10 will be the same.

Line 11: The Adjusted Base Child Support Award per Child may be used during periods of extended visitation. In the case of emancipation of a child, the Base Support Obligation would not be reduced by the per child amount. Instead, the amount of the award should be recalculated based upon the remaining children in the home.

Line 12: Each parent is responsible for 50 percent of the monthly child care costs to the obligee when the expense is actually incurred.

Medical Expenses: The custodial parent is required to pay the uninsured routine medical and dental expenses, including routine office visits, physical examinations and immunizations. The order shall require both parents to share all other reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses in a ratio determined by the court or administrative agency.

Extended Visitation: General Definition - visitation for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. The order may provide for a reduction of 50 percent of the Adjusted Base Child Support Award for periods of extended visitation. The child may spend any 5 of the 30 days with the custodial parent without affecting the abatement reduction. For the reduction to take effect, such visitation must be both ordered and exercised.

Plaintiff,	:
vs.	:	ORDER ON ORDER TO
	:	SHOW CAUSE
GINGER ROWE,	:
Defendant.	:
	:	Civil No. 92-4400164

This matter came before the Court for Oral Arguments and Order to Show Cause on March 17, 1992. The Plaintiff appeared Pro Se. The Defendant appeared and was represented by Marilyn Moody Brown. Based on the evidence and good cause appearing, it is hereby ordered, adjudged, and decreed as follows:

1. The Court previously assumed jurisdiction in this matter in Civil No. CV-88-78. Civil No. 92-4400164 is hereby consolidated into Civil No. CV-88-78.

2. The parties entered into a Stipulation on September 10, 1989. It was prepared by the Norman Rowe's attorney. The Stipulation was never filed by his attorney. However, the parties relied on the Stipulation, and the Plaintiff executed a Satisfaction of Judgment in reliance on the Stipulation. Mr. Rowe paid $12,600.00 for arrearages in child support based on the Stipulation. The Court will not allow Mr. Rowe to only accept part of the Stipulation nor will the Court allow the Defendant to be penalized because Plaintiff's attorney failed to file the Stipulation and follow through to obtain a Court order.

3. The Stipulation is hereby accepted for Entry of Judgment.

4. On April 15, 1991, an Order of Dismissal was entered against the parties for failure to prosecute. The Order of Dismissal is hereby set aside.

5. The Defendant has ten (10) days to produce a document, if such a document exists, that was dated after September 10, 1989, signed by both parties which shows that the Stipulation was modified in any way. If not, the Stipulation for Entry of Judgment will be controlling and the Court will sign an Order Nunc Pro Tunc based on the Stipulation from the time it was executed by the parties.

6. The Defendant has ten days to produce receipts for payments made from the date the Stipulation was executed.

Judgment will enter on the amount of arrearage owed by Defendant based on the Stipulation.

DATED this 30 day of March, 1992.

HOWARD H. MAETANI
Court Commissioner

CERTIFICATE OF MAILING

On this 18th day of March, 1992, a true and correct copy of the foregoing Order on Order to Show Cause was mailed, postage prepaid to Norman Rowe, at 4161 Jupiter Drive, Salt Lake City, Utah 84124.
