IN THE SUPREME COURT
OF THE STATE OF UTAH

PHIL L. HANSEN,
Plaintiff and Appellant,
vs.
LEGAL SERVICES COMMITTEE
OF THE UTAH STATE LEGISLA-TURE,
Defendant and Respondent.

PETITION
FOR REHEARING

No.
10784

COMES NOW the Defendant and Respondent, by and through its attorney and petitions the above Honorable Court for rehearing.

This petition is filed to have the Court reconsider its decision which was filed July 10, 1967 and is made pursuant to Rule 76 (e) of the Utah Rules and Civil Procedure.

The petitioner asserts and alleges that the Court erred in the following particulars:

(1) Article 24, Section 12, of Utah Constitution does not read as it is quoted in the Court's written opinion.

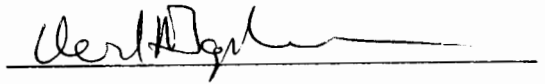

(2) Article 24, Section 12 of Utah Constitution does not define the term "state officers" to whom the attorney general shall act as Legal Advisor.

(3) State vs. Yelle, 329 P.2d 841 (1958) is constitutionally a similar case.

(4) Defendant and Respondent does rely on other things than State v. Yelle and the past practice of hiring reference attorneys.

(5) The Legislature is not trying to emasculate the attorney general's office, but rather is trying to provide services to the members of the Legislature that will allow them to meet the new and complex problems of an expanded government.

Respectfully submitted,
