THE FOUNDATION FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW AND MANAGEMENT

The Foundation for International Law and Management (The Foundation) is a nonprofit educational corporation that provides financial and advisory support to the Brigham Young University (BYU) International Law & Management Review.

The Foundation's board of directors is comprised of law and management professionals and academics from around the United States who are dedicated to promoting practical and progressive scholarship in the oft-intersecting areas of international law and management.

The Foundation is governed by a board of eight directors that consult with an advisory committee made up of law and business practitioners and professors in the United States and abroad.

The BYU International Law & Management Review (ILMR) publishes a winter and a spring issue each academic year.

Foundation for International Law and Management, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit educational corporation, 430 JRCB, Provo, Utah 84602, U.S.A.

Subscriptions for U.S. addresses are US$40 annually. Subscriptions for non-U.S. addresses are US$50 annually. Subscriptions are renewed automatically each year unless the ILMR receives a request for discontinuance.

Subscriptions for this publication may be ordered via the ILMR website at: <http://ilmreview.org/subscriptions.htm> using the PayPal secure online payment system or by downloading a PDF subscription form and mailing it to the address above.

The BYU International Law & Management Review welcomes the submission of international articles, book reviews, notes, comments, updates, and practitioner-oriented pieces for publication. Each manuscript should be a typed, double-spaced Microsoft Word document formatted in the Times New Roman typeface. Manuscripts should be submitted electronically to ilmsubmissions@byulaw.net. Electronic submission of digital copies of sources cited is also strongly encouraged. Please view the ILMR website at: <http://www.law2.byu.edu/ilmr/> for more information.
